Despite Overcast Skies

Early Reports Indicate Heavy Balloting In Ohio

City Shows 1,494 Votes In Morning

Local Polling Falls 20 Per Cent From Same Time In '62

Steady rain cut heavily into the East Liverpool turnout today as Columbiana County went to the polls in an off-year general election to pick state, district and county officials and decide the fate of 28 special questions and issues.

A sampling of eight city polling places indicated only 1,494 ballots had been cast in the first four hours after voting began. The figure is off about 20 per cent from the forenoon turnout of 1,845 shown in the last comparable election in 1962.

In the general election four years ago, Columbiana County cast 33,839 votes, including 6,396 in East Liverpool.

Pre - election forecasts called for a 36,000 turnout today, but the actual voting may fall short of the prediction — particularly if rain continues throughout the day.

But East Liverpool's vote is not necessarily indicative of the turnout in other parts of Columbiana County. Some county communities reported comparatively heavy voting in the morning hours.

The tempo of voting was expected to pick up this afternoon in the last few hours before the polls close. Homeward - bound workers always add to the rush.

The steady rain this morning was seen as a big factor in slowing the turnout, but the voting pace may pick up later in the day if skies clear.

If the voting actually falls 20 per cent behind 1962, the total

Review Will Provide Vote Returns Tonight

Election returns may be obtained at The Review tonight as they become available.

With the exception of a "flash count" on the local school levy, definite trends in the county races are not expected until early in the morning under procedure to be followed at the Election Board here under instructions from the secretary of state in handling the count.

The Review number is 385-4545.

Choose Between Shafer Or Shapp For Governor

65 To 70% Voter Turnout Seen In Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Pennsylvanians cast ballots today in the climax of a sometimes bitter gubernatorial campaign pitting Republican Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer and Democrat Milton Shapp.

Political experts predicted a voter turnout of about 65 to 70 per cent of the state's 5½ million eligible voters—despite the bitter, name-calling gubernatorial campaign.

Several other statewide offices were up for grabs, in addition to contests for U.S. representative in each district.

The congressional races alone are considered extremely important by the politicians, if not by the voters, because they involve 27 newly-apportioned districts.

Democrats now have a 15-12 edge in congressmen, but the GOP has poured extra money and efforts into three districts—the 4th, 19 and 24th—in an all-out bid for control.

Name-calling went on in the governor's race right down to the last day. The last exchange included charges of racism.

Shafer's supporters charged Shapp with "racism" because of selective appeals to Negroes by distributing leaflets claiming that Shafer owned a home covered by a "restrictive covenant" which barred him from selling or renting it to non-caucasions.

Shapp's campaign headquarters retorted Monday night that the charge was true and distributed copies of what is said was Shafer's deed, containing a clause barring sale or rental to Negroes.

Before the weekend, Shapp also accused Shafer supporters of injecting the issue of anti-semitism into the race. Shapp is the first Jew to run for governor in Pennsylvania.

But Shapp remained quiet and behind the scenes himself during the last three days of the campaign as did all other Democratic candidates. The reason was the heart attack suffered by former Gov. David L. Lawrence at a Democratic rally in Pittsburgh Friday night.

"The serious condition of Gov. Lawrence, as well as the circumstances under which he suffered his attack, hit me pretty hard," said Shapp. Lawrence collapsed as he was about to begin an address at the rally.

Shafer — who began his campaign to succeed Governor Scranton 302 days ago—ended it Monday with a whirlwind air tour of the state. Shafer made airport stops at Philadelphia, Scranton, Altoona, Johnstown, Pittsburgh and Erie.

But crowds were small. Only 35, for instance, met him at Philadelphia.

Although independent polls show Shafer a slight favorite over Shapp, both candidates are banking on the so-called "silent vote" to carry them to victory. More persons have indicated an undecided status in polls then ever before.

This doesn't mean that these "silent" voters aren't sure which way to vote. It could be a desire not to share their choice with the pollsters.

Another factor in the gubernatorial race is Edward S. Swartz, a self-styled conserva-

GOP Hopes To Wipe Out '64 Losses

Counts On Rhodes' Popularity To Help In Congress Races

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohioans appeared to be turning out in record numbers today to cast ballots in an election Republicans hope will offset losses of two years ago when Lyndon B. Johnson swept the state.

Mid - morning reports from Cleveland, Cincinnati and Columbus election boards all indicated heavy balloting for an off-year election, despite cloudy skies and some rain throughout the state.

The board of elections in Cleveland said mid-morning balloting was "a little above normal" for a non-presidential election.

Skies were overcast in Cleveland with intermittent rain expected throughout the day. Much the same situation prevailed elsewhere in the state, although a few points reported only "normal" voting at midmorning, such as Springfield.

GOP leaders counted on popularity of Gov. James A. Rhodes, as shown generally in newspaper polls, to help regain at least the four congressional seats lost to Democrats in 1964 and possibly win control of the legislature, elected for the first time under reapportionment into single-member districts.

Backers said Rhodes, heading a slate of Statehouse incumbents, might surpass his nearly 556,000 plurality of 1962 if Secretary of State Ted W. Brown's estimate of a record 3.45 million "off year" vote materializes. Less optimistic forecasts were for a 400,000-vote plurality, some ran to 800,000.

State Sen. Frazier Reams Jr., Toledo, Rhodes' opponent, and other hard-pressed Democrats maintained right down to the wire that their party would more than hold its own.

5 Possible Verdicts Outlined

Jury Begins Deliberations In Copestick Slaying Case

The first - degree murder trial of Charles L. Copestick, 25, of 871 Valley Ave., East Liverpool, went to the jury today at Lisbon at 10:50 a. m.

Copestick is charged with the fatal shooting of his wife, Rebecca Mae, 19.

JUDGE Raymond S. Buzzard outlined five possible verdicts in his instructions to the jurors:

1. — Guilty as charged in the indictment. "If you find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree and do not recommend mercy, then use this form."

2. — Guilty as charged in the indictment with a recommendation of mercy.

3. — Not guilty of murder in the first degree, but guilty of murder in the second degree.

4. — Not guilty of murder either in the first or second degrees, but guilty of manslaughter in the first degree.

5. — Not guilty.

Judge Buzzard appointed Bailiff Earl Foster to see that the jury is sequestered and communicates with no one except him until it returns a verdict or is otherwise discharged.

The oath to perform this duty was administered by Carl L. Stacey, clerk of courts.

Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis pulled the trigger of a little pistol five times Monday afternoon to end testimony at the trial.

The defendant sat quietly under Bettis' scathing attack during closing argument. His expression did not change as Bettis, pistol in hand, told the jury Copestick deserves the same kind of mercy he gave his wife.

With that, Bettis pointed the gun at the base of the jury box and fired five times, counting each click of the hammer in a loud voice.

FORTY spectators crowded courtroom for rebuttal testimony and closing arguments yesterday.

Bettis and his assistant, James D. Primm Jr., told the jury of eight men and four women the evidence is conclusive that Copestick "shot his wife with deliberate and premeditated malice on June 19 in Columbiana County."

Mrs. Copestick, separated from her husband since May 1, was shot five times in the head as the couple sat in a parked car Sunday afternoon—Father's Day—on Price St. Ext. in Liverpool Township. Both Bettis and Primm used "God forsaken" to describe the lonely road.

G. William Brokaw and Donald Shay, court - appointed defense counsel, said the evidence shows Copestick had no preconceived notion whatever to take his wife out and shoot her. Brokaw termed the evidence "overwhelming" for the defendant.

The defendant's testimony was that he stopped the car to talk to his wife about going back together and that she told him she didn't care about what happened to him or the baby—their 2-year-old son.

Copestick said he reached under the car seat, got the loaded pistol, put it to his right temple and told Rebecca Mae she

May Determine Gov. Smith's Future

Voters In West Virginia May Decide 1968 Topics

By JAMES RAGSDALE
Associated Press Writer

West Virginians cast their votes today on a long list of people and issues in an election which could decide some peppery topics for the 1968 campaign as well as help determine Gov. Hulett Smith's future in the State house.

Good weather was expected to help today's turnout as the Weather Bureau forecast "a pretty nice day" with warm temperatures and only a slight chance of scattered showers, mainly in northern areas.

Key issues in the election could have a long-range effect on West Virginia politics, including questions to do or not to do surgery on the state's 94-year-old constitution.

The main statewide issues facing the voters today include:

—Five constitutional amendments, one of which could decide if Gov. Smith can seek another term in 1968.

—Election of a secretary of state, deciding a vigorous off-year contest which could land a Republican on the powerful Board of Public Works and make him the only executive branch officeholder in the state.

—Election of a United States senator, testing the popularity of incumbent Democrat Jennings Randolph and a popular former congressman from the Northern Panhandle, Francis J. Love.

But unless voters find one of the key issues specially electrifying, only slightly more than half of the state's 1,020,723 registered voters were expected to reach the polls in 2,608 precincts.

The polls opened at 6:30 a.m. and will close at 7:30 p.m.

Results of previous off - year elections — when there were more voters registered and some issues considered "hotter" — show anywhere from 55.16 to 59.54 per cent of the electorate showed up to vote.

Although Gov. Smith has declined to say if he would run in 1968 should the governor's succession amendment pass today, there was little doubt among official observers of what Smith's decision would be.

A live-wire issue since before the primary election last May enveloped what normally is a low-key race for secretary of state.

Republican John S. Callebs, the Marshall University professor from Huntington, is challenging Democrat Robert D. Bailey mainly on the issue of alleged voting frauds around the state.

Bailey, a Pineville lawyer and businessman, was hand - picked for his current secretary of state job by Gov. Smith to fill the unexpired term created by the death of Joe Burdett last year.

Running a close third in controversy during the campaign was the amendment to extend the legislature's sessions, raise the pay of its members and lib-

United Fund Hits 80% Of Drive Goal

With $100,500 collected in the annual United Fund drive, campaign officials today indicated the campaign will achieve its goal if those who have not yet contributed provide their "fair share."

At a meeting of campaign leaders Monday night at the YMCA, it was reported the drive has received in collections or pledges 80 per cent of the goal of $125,000.

James McGowan, campaign chairman, said not all reports are in and solicitations of all areas are not complete.

He expressed the hope that support of the drive in its final stages will enable the United Fund to achieve its goal in the program to aid 16 community service organizations.

Directors of the fund will meet Nov. 21 for final reports, McGowan said.

The collections in each division — with the goal in parentheses—are:

Advanced Gifts — $4,653 ($5,775); Professional — $3,794 ($4,912); Mercantile B —$1,510 ($2,700); Mercantile A — $21,694 ($29,300); Newell — $43 ($250). Chester — $1,312 ($2,100); Industrial — $60,420 ($77,000); Public Service — $6,461 ($6,900), and Public Affairs — $321 ($1,600). Clubs and Groups — $75 (no goal).

During Council Session

Ranking Police And Fire Officers Ask Pay Hikes

Eight ranking officers of the police and fire departments joined in a request to Council for pay increases Monday night, pointing out there is comparatively little difference now between their salaries and the wage scales of the men they command.

In a joint letter to Council, the officers asked boosts for the chiefs of both departments from $540 to $600; a raise in the vacant police captain's job from $485 to $550, and a hike from $475 to $525 for the six police lieutenants and assistant fire chiefs.

Council took the request under advisement after a discussion in its caucus room.

The police department was represented by Chief A. J. Radeschi and Lts. Charles E. (Bill) Tice and Robert B. Pyle. Representing the fire department were Chief Alfred VanDyne and Asst. Chiefs Gerald Goodballet and Frank Butler.

Police Lt. Kenneth Mooney and Asst. Chief James Pelley of the fire department were absent. The police captain's post has been vacant since the death of Robert H. Pyle.

The joint letter from the officers, read to Council by VanDyne, said the commanders feel they should have an increase "so that there might be a larger difference between rank-and-file and command."

"We make this request due to the nature of our duties," the letter continued. "In time of emergencies and crisis, we as officers must make on-the-spot judgments and immediate decisions for the preservation of life, limb and property."

Tice pointed out that when

Vote Today, Johnson Appeals To Americans

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson made this election eve appeal to Americans Monday night:

"Tomorrow we vote. The issues are important and complex. The choice of good men is critical. I urge you, my fellow Americans, to use the right that men have died for—and that is your own voice in the future of your country. Tomorrow — vote."

New Hearing To Be Held On Grid Picture

A second hearing will be conducted at Columbus Nov. 18 by the Ohio High School Athletic Association on alleged infractions of football rules at East Liverpool High School.

Commissioner Paul Landis at Columbus this morning said it will be a "closed hearing" with "other school people who have been complaining." Landis said he had no statement to issue concerning the hearing other than acknowledging the fact the meeting had been called by his office.

Letters concerning the meeting reportedly have been mailed to Wellsville, Toronto and Salem as well as East Liverpool.

Supt. Paul Blair, Assistant Supt. Carl Pelini and Robert McNea, athletic director, were requested to attend the hearing from here.

Landis and Harry Myers, assistant commissioner, conducted a similar hearing on alleged violations at East Liverpool the first part of August, with the school being cleared of any major infractions at that time.

Hearing Scheduled Monday

Board Told Court Action Won't Affect School Plan

The pending court action filed by a Salem construction firm over the awarding of contracts for the new East and LaCroft elementary schools will not adversely affect the building program in any manner, Robert Beatty, architect, reported during a meeting of the East Liverpool Board of Education Monday night.

The Riley Construction Co. has filed a mandamus action in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon claiming its proposal was "the most responsible bid as required by law." The contract for the two buildings was awarded the Modany Brothers of Smiths Ferry, low bidder. Riley claims the Modany bid was not accompanied by a valid bond.

A hearing will be held Monday in Common Pleas Court.

The Board of Education followed a ruling handed down by the attorney general's office at Columbus in awarding the contract.

Postmaster Samuel Brown, board member, pointed out the bids were opened by T. V. Utterback, chief of the building section of the Ohio Department of Education. He was accompanied by the state department's attorney and the local Board of Education had nothing at all to do with the procedure, Brown explained.

Beatty commented that the court action will not affect the building program, pointing out it is up to the state to determine which firm will construct the buildings. Any action will have to be taken by the state officials, who will direct the local board as to what to do.

Beatty presented a progress report on the construction of the four new buildings. The site is being graded for the North Elementary and high school buildings. He said a drive will be cut to the area for equipment and trucks so the neighborhood

Doctor Says Lawrence In Deep Coma

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Former Pennsylvania Gov. David L. Lawrence was in a deep coma today. His doctor said death could come anytime.

"There is no medical chance for him to survive," said Dr. Campbell Moses, Lawrence's personal physician for 20 years.

Lawrence, 77, suffered a heart attack Friday night while making a speech at a Democratic Party rally in Syria Mosque.

Moses said Lawrence's heart stopped twice, causing irreparable damage to the brain.

The doctor expressed surprise that Lawrence was still holding on. He indicated a man of average stamina would not have held out as long.

Moses added that doctors had decided to take no "extraordinary" measures to keep Lawrence alive.

"If he had normal brain activity," Moses said, "we would have gone to any ends."

Ranking Police And Fire Officers Ask Pay Hikes

Eight ranking officers of the police and fire departments joined in a request to Council for pay increases Monday night, pointing out there is comparatively little difference now between their salaries and the wage scales of the men they command.

In a joint letter to Council, the officers asked boosts for the chiefs of both departments from $540 to $600; a raise in the vacant police captain's job from $485 to $550, and a hike from $475 to $525 for the six police lieutenants and assistant fire chiefs.

Council took the request under advisement after a discussion in its caucus room.

The police department was represented by Chief A. J. Radeschi and Lts. Charles E. (Bill) Tice and Robert B. Pyle. Representing the fire department were Chief Alfred VanDyne and Asst. Chiefs Gerald Goodballet and Frank Butler.

Police Lt. Kenneth Mooney and Asst. Chief James Pelley of the fire department were absent. The police captain's post has been vacant since the death of Robert H. Pyle.

The joint letter from the officers, read to Council by VanDyne, said the commanders feel they should have an increase "so that there might be a larger difference between rank-and-file and command."

"We make this request due to the nature of our duties," the letter continued. "In time of emergencies and crisis, we as officers must make on-the-spot judgments and immediate decisions for the preservation of life, limb and property."

Tice pointed out that when

New Hearing To Be Held On Grid Picture

A second hearing will be conducted at Columbus Nov. 18 by the Ohio High School Athletic Association on alleged infractions of football rules at East Liverpool High School.

Commissioner Paul Landis at Columbus this morning said it will be a "closed hearing" with "other school people who have been complaining." Landis said he had no statement to issue concerning the hearing other than acknowledging the fact the meeting had been called by his office.

Letters concerning the meeting reportedly have been mailed to Wellsville, Toronto and Salem as well as East Liverpool.

Supt. Paul Blair, Assistant Supt. Carl Pelini and Robert McNea, athletic director, were requested to attend the hearing from here.

Landis and Harry Myers, assistant commissioner, conducted a similar hearing on alleged violations at East Liverpool the first part of August, with the school being cleared of any major infractions at that time.

Board Told Court Action Won't Affect School Plan

The pending court action filed by a Salem construction firm over the awarding of contracts for the new East and LaCroft elementary schools will not adversely affect the building program in any manner, Robert Beatty, architect, reported during a meeting of the East Liverpool Board of Education Monday night.

The Riley Construction Co. has filed a mandamus action in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon claiming its proposal was "the most responsible bid as required by law." The contract for the two buildings was awarded the Modany Brothers of Smiths Ferry, low bidder. Riley claims the Modany bid was not accompanied by a valid bond.

A hearing will be held Monday in Common Pleas Court.

The Board of Education followed a ruling handed down by the attorney general's office at Columbus in awarding the contract.

Postmaster Samuel Brown, board member, pointed out the bids were opened by T. V. Utterback, chief of the building section of the Ohio Department of Education. He was accompanied by the state department's attorney and the local Board of Education had nothing at all to do with the procedure, Brown explained.

Beatty commented that the court action will not affect the building program, pointing out it is up to the state to determine which firm will construct the buildings. Any action will have to be taken by the state officials, who will direct the local board as to what to do.

Beatty presented a progress report on the construction of the four new buildings. The site is being graded for the North Elementary and high school buildings. He said a drive will be cut to the area for equipment and trucks so the neighborhood

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Former Pennsylvania Gov. David L. Lawrence was in a deep coma today. His doctor said death could come anytime.

"There is no medical chance for him to survive," said Dr. Campbell Moses, Lawrence's personal physician for 20 years.

Lawrence, 77, suffered a heart attack Friday night while making a speech at a Democratic Party rally in Syria Mosque.

Moses said Lawrence's heart stopped twice, causing irreparable damage to the brain.

The doctor expressed surprise that Lawrence was still holding on. He indicated a man of average stamina would not have held out as long.

Moses added that doctors had decided to take no "extraordinary" measures to keep Lawrence alive.

"If he had normal brain activity," Moses said, "we would have gone to any ends."

No Longer Used

Beaver Local Eyes Sale Of Oak Grove Structure

Sale of the Oak Grove School along Route 170, closed for some eight years, was discussed during a meeting of the Beaver Local School District Board of Education Monday night.

The Mt. Zion Methodist Church had been using the building near Pancake's Corner, but has completed a church project and no longer utilizes it. The Achor Baptist Church requested use of the structure, but Supt. Roy Cashdollar last night recommended the building be sold.

The board agreed to study the sale proposal. Cashdollar is to obtain the deeds and necessary papers for the tract of four acres which include two lots—one of one acre and the other of three.

Money from the sale, Cashdollar said, would be placed in a construction fund for needed classrooms at the high school. He is to report at the next meeting Nov. 21.

The board approved the sale of two more buses — 1957 GMC 66-passenger buses which are not needed on the regular routes. Four other replaced buses were sold by the board recently.

Charles Miller of Lisbon R.D. was approved as a full - time bus driver and Frank Lyons of Huston Pl. was named a substitute bus driver.

Paul Jackson, teacher at the Public School, was appointed wrestling coach.

A delegation from the Elkton Parent - Teacher Organization requested replacement of incandescent lights in the older section of the school. Cashdollar is to obtain cost estimates for installing fluorescent lights, similar to those in the new section.

The West Point PTA was given approval to purchase and install a public address system at the West Point School to provide communication from the office to the classrooms.

The Glenmoor United Presbyterian Church basketball team was granted permission to use the Public School gym on Tuesdays prior to the adult recreation class.

The transportation committee of the board was to meet this afternoon to work out policies on the new bus garage. The finance committee will meet Nov. 21 prior to the board meeting to discuss some financial matters, including the Oak Grove School sale.

Members William Smith and Paul Dailey were absent. Clayton Aughinbaugh presided.

$2,000 Damage Set In Lisbon Home Fire

LISBON — Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bloor of St. Jacob's Church Rd. say a Saturday night fire in the basement of their home caused approximately $2,000 damage. They had insurance.

Bloor, who carried his bedfast father from the house after noticing smoke, kept the house closed until Lisbon and Leetonia volunteer firemen arrived. Firemen credited his action with keeping the flames from gaining much headway. Smoke damage was extensive and is not included in the $2,000 estimate.

The Bloors are looking for temporary quarters since repair of the damage will take about one month.

Pennsylvania

tive Republican now heading the Constitutional Party slate. He says he will get a big vote and observers say if Swartz polls as much as 200,000 it would help the Democrats and probably defeat Shafer.

A fourth candidate for governor is George S. Taylor, running on the Socialist-Labor ticket. Support for Taylor, who has run previously for governor, U.S. senator and mayor of Philadelphia under the Socialist-Labor banner, is expected to be minimal.

The main issue for Shafer has been the Republican administration of Gov. William W. Scranton.

Shafer said Scranton, who took office after eight years of Democratic rule in Harrisburg, had brought back fiscal responsibility, attracted new industry and had provided 500,000 more jobs in Pennsylvania.

Shapp said the state was running downhill under Scranton and would continue to slide under Shafer. He promised free college tuition for Pennsylvania youths, new taxes on utilities, cheaper milk and auto insurance reforms.

Besides the governor and congressmen, voters will elect a lieutenant governor, secretary of internal affairs, two judges of the State Superior Court, 27 congressmen, the entire state legislature—50 senators and 203 representatives—plus hundreds of local officials.

Also on the statewide ballot are two proposed amendments to the Pennsylvania Constitution.

The Senate is now controlled by Republicans while the Democrats have the majority in the House.

Craig Truax, Republican state chairman, said prospects were excellent for the GOP to win majorities in both houses. Thomas Z. Minehart, Democratic state chairman, said he considered the election a critical one for Pennsylvania in that the GOP victory would continue "the basic economic stagnation that has plagued us for much of the 20th century."

While voters go to the state's 9,424 polling places during the 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. voting period, there were appeals to voters to elect Shafer governor and pick Democrat Leonard Staisey as lieutenant governor.

The GOP candidate for lieutenant governor actually was the party's second choice, since the Republicans slated Atty. Gen. Walter E. Alessandroni, who was killed in a plane crash just days before the May primary. Alessandroni was elected posthumously and the GOP selected Raymond Broderick, a Philadelphia lawyer, to take his place.

Genevieve Blatt, one of the Democrat's best vote-getters, is seeking a fourth four-year term as secretary of internal affairs and is opposed by Republican John K. Tabor, Scranton's commerce secretary.

In the State Superior Court race, both parties have nominated a Negro. Seeking re-election are Republicans G. Harold Watkins and Theodore O. Spaulding, a Negro. Democratic candidates are Clinto Budd Palmer and Juanita Kidd Stout, a Negro from Philadelphia.

Republican James D. Weaver, an ex-congressman, hopes to win back his 24th District seat in Erie County from Democrat Joseph P. Vigorito, the incumbent. In the 19th District, Republican George A. Goodling hopes to win back the seat he lost two years ago to N. Neiman Craley Jr., the Democratic incumbent. Both are from York County.

Philadelphia Republicans are fighting to win their first congressional seat in the state's biggest city since 1958. The seat is being vacated by ailing Democrat Herman Toll and is sought by Democrat Joshua Eilberg and Republican Robert Cohen.

Statewide, the Republicans have been cutting into the state's Democratic majority. There are 80,590 more Democrats than Republicans today. In May there were 93,956 more Democrats and in 1962 the edge was 195,935.

Firm Agrees To Aid Creek Cleaning Job

EAST PALESTINE — The Adamson Manufacturing Co. of E. Clark St. advised Council Monday night the firm will participate in a proposed cleaning of the James St. Creek.

Council has been endeavoring to undertake a clearing of the creek which has flooded many times in the past, primarily due to debris and sediment in the creek bed.

The Adamson firm indicated it will join in the project for the part of the creek which passes under its plant. The city will be responsible for the creek portion under the street. The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. has not yet advised city officials of its intent concerning the project.

Council was advised by William H. Vodrey, secretary-treasurer of the Columbiana County Law Library, the library would participate in up to half of the cost of a planned recodification of the city's ordinances. Council has authorized the $1,050 project.

In other action, Council voted unanimously to endorse "the feasibility of a proposed new city medical center." A number of other city groups have backed the feasibility of the project, which would provide a medical building to attract new physicians.

Raises

general pay raises were voted in 1965, the rank-and-file firemen and police were given 10 per cent boosts, but the raises for the commanding officers averaged 7 per cent.

Radeschi commented that he feels higher pay scales would provide additional incentives for both the commanding officers and the rank-and-file members of the department. Patrolmen and firemen would be encouraged to strive harder in their jobs with the hope of attaining one of the higher paid jobs, he said. In addition, the higher scales would help attract more applicants for Civil Service exams for vacancies, he said.

The caucus session also included a brief discussion of a letter sent to Council by Safety-Service Director Robert E. Vodrey more than a week ago suggesting that the post of police captain be abolished and a fourth lieutenant's post be created instead. But no decision was reached.

Council scheduled an informal meeting for Thursday night at 7:30 in Mayor George Willshaw's office to discuss several problems, including the recommendation to abolish the captain's job.

Don Eckert, chairman of the City Planning Commission, also appeared in the caucus session. He discussed recent work of the Planning Commission and gave a progress report on several projects, including a "demonstration" transportation plan and preparation of proposed zoning ordinances.

$150,000 Asked In Accident Suit

LISBON — Joseph W. Sines of East Liverpool R. D. 2, injured Nov. 1, 1965, in a three-car crash on Route 7 near Rogers, is asking $150,000 for injuries.

Defendants in the suit are the other two drivers — Edward E. Novotny of Youngstown and Donald M. Curran of East Liverpool R. D. 1 — and Donald K. Croxall of East Liverpool M. C. 22, who owned the vehicle driven by Curran.

Sines claims he was driving north when Novotny, southbound in a 1966 sedan, drove left of center and collided with his 1959 sedan. Curran, also northbound, hit the Sines car from behind, the petition states.

Sines says his injuries are permanent and he has lost and will continue to lose wages of $200 per week as a carpenter.

His wife, Mary, filed a companion suit against the same defendants for $1,762 for his injuries and damages to her car.

county vote would hit a little over 27,000.

The turnout in East Liverpool precincts this morning was spotty, with some polling places showing heavier votes than in the morning hours of 1962, others showing lighter polling.

Precinct 2-E, which votes at the North Side Fire Station, showed the highest total among the precincts sampled. The precinct showed 91 forenoon votes today, against 85 at the same time in 1962.

Here's the morning turnout in other polling places, listing first the vote today and then the figure for the same time in 1962, when available: 1-B, 67 today and 48 in 1962; 1-C, 18 and 24; 2-I, 40 and 35; 3-C, 36 and 43, and 4-C, 27 and 29.

Precinct 3-F showed 17 morning votes today while Precinct 4-E had 36. Comparable figures are not available for 1962.

Here's the forenoon vote in some East Liverpool precincts in the 1964 presidential election: 1-B, 99; 2-B, 125; 1-C, 40; 2-E, 122; 3-C, 53; 2-I, 77, and 4-E, 63.

The 168 polling places throughout Columbiana County opened at 6:30 a. m. and will close at 6:30 p. m.

Following the order of count laid down by Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, the Election Board will make the first tabulations tonight on the top half of the ticket. It will compile returns first on statewide offices, beginning with the governor's race and extending down the list through judges of the Ohio Supreme Court and 18th District congressman.

The second segment of the tabulation will cover offices from state senator down through Courthouse posts, appeals court judges and county court judges.

Following a long - standing custom, the board will make a "flash" count immediately after the polls close on the two most avidly - watched issues—the Rhodes - Reams contest for governor and the 3.5-mill East Liverpool School District levy.

Precinct crews will make a quick count of the returns on the governor's race and the school levy and then phone the figures to the board's office, which will maintain cumulative totals. The "flash" counts usually are completed in less than an hour after the polls close.

Past experience shows it will be well after midnight before complete, unofficial county totals are available on all races and issues.

At the last comparable election in 1962, the complete, unofficial returns were finished at 1:30 a. m. the day following the balloting. In 1958, the task also was completed at 1:30. The job required until 4:15 a. m. following the 1956 presidential election. The board's staff worked until 3:25 a. m. to finish the complete, unofficial tabulation of returns from the 1964 presidential election.

In the 1960 presidential election, the city cast 3,440 forenoon votes. The county's total turnout hit 48,930, setting a new record, and the city's vote was 9,323. The previous record for county voting was 46,090, set in the 1952 presidential election.

The 1952 election showed 3,864 forenoon votes in East Liverpool. The city's total vote that year was 10,233.

In 1956, the city showed 3,340 forenoon votes. Its total turnout hit 8,937.

John Vokovich, program chairman, said the speaker will show movies taken last summer on a trip to Ireland and England.

President Cornell Monday will be in charge. The Board of Directors will meet at 9 p. m. Wednesday.

The second time he carried the ball in an American Football League game, Emerson Boozer of the New York Jets went 39 yards for a touchdown against Houston's Oilers.

would have to watch him shoot himself. He said she grabbed his wrist and the gun discharged accidentally. He said he remembers only one shot.

Brokaw asked, "How in the name of sense can the state ask for a verdict of first - degree murder without recommendation of mercy when there are all kinds of doubt as to what happened up there?"

Recalling Copestick's answer that he was "pretty shook up" by his wife's declaration, Brokaw suggested he could have fired in rage then, coming to his senses and realizing his wife was still alive, he drove wildly down hill to his house to call for an ambulance and the police.

Brokaw told the jury the defense begs for mercy for Copestick if the jury finds him guilty.

No Longer Used

Beaver Local Eyes Sale Of Oak Grove Structure

Sale of the Oak Grove School along Route 170, closed for some eight years, was discussed during a meeting of the Beaver Local School District Board of Education Monday night.

The Mt. Zion Methodist Church had been using the building near Pancake's Corner, but has completed a church project and no longer utilizes it. The Achor Baptist Church requested use of the structure, but Supt. Roy Cashdollar last night recommended the building be sold.

The board agreed to study the sale proposal. Cashdollar is to obtain the deeds and necessary papers for the tract of four acres which include two lots—one of one acre and the other of three.

Money from the sale, Cashdollar said, would be placed in a construction fund for needed classrooms at the high school. He is to report at the next meeting Nov. 21.

The board approved the sale of two more buses — 1957 GMC 66-passenger buses which are not needed on the regular routes. Four other replaced buses were sold by the board recently.

Charles Miller of Lisbon R.D. was approved as a full - time bus driver and Frank Lyons of Huston Pl. was named a substitute bus driver.

Paul Jackson, teacher at the Public School, was appointed wrestling coach.

A delegation from the Elkton Parent - Teacher Organization requested replacement of incandescent lights in the older section of the school. Cashdollar is to obtain cost estimates for installing fluorescent lights, similar to those in the new section.

The West Point PTA was given approval to purchase and install a public address system at the West Point School to provide communication from the office to the classrooms.

The Glenmoor United Presbyterian Church basketball team was granted permission to use the Public School gym on Tuesdays prior to the adult recreation class.

The transportation committee of the board was to meet this afternoon to work out policies on the new bus garage. The finance committee will meet Nov. 21 prior to the board meeting to discuss some financial matters, including the Oak Grove School sale.

Members William Smith and Paul Dailey were absent. Clayton Aughinbaugh presided.

$2,000 Damage Set In Lisbon Home Fire

LISBON — Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bloor of St. Jacob's Church Rd. say a Saturday night fire in the basement of their home caused approximately $2,000 damage. They had insurance.

Bloor, who carried his bedfast father from the house after noticing smoke, kept the house closed until Lisbon and Leetonia volunteer firemen arrived. Firemen credited his action with keeping the flames from gaining much headway. Smoke damage was extensive and is not included in the $2,000 estimate.

The Bloors are looking for temporary quarters since repair of the damage will take about one month.

tive Republican now heading the Constitutional Party slate. He says he will get a big vote and observers say if Swartz polls as much as 200,000 it would help the Democrats and probably defeat Shafer.

A fourth candidate for governor is George S. Taylor, running on the Socialist-Labor ticket. Support for Taylor, who has run previously for governor, U.S. senator and mayor of Philadelphia under the Socialist-Labor banner, is expected to be minimal.

The main issue for Shafer has been the Republican administration of Gov. William W. Scranton.

Shafer said Scranton, who took office after eight years of Democratic rule in Harrisburg, had brought back fiscal responsibility, attracted new industry and had provided 500,000 more jobs in Pennsylvania.

Shapp said the state was running downhill under Scranton and would continue to slide under Shafer. He promised free college tuition for Pennsylvania youths, new taxes on utilities, cheaper milk and auto insurance reforms.

Besides the governor and congressmen, voters will elect a lieutenant governor, secretary of internal affairs, two judges of the State Superior Court, 27 congressmen, the entire state legislature—50 senators and 203 representatives—plus hundreds of local officials.

Also on the statewide ballot are two proposed amendments to the Pennsylvania Constitution.

The Senate is now controlled by Republicans while the Democrats have the majority in the House.

Craig Truax, Republican state chairman, said prospects were excellent for the GOP to win majorities in both houses. Thomas Z. Minehart, Democratic state chairman, said he considered the election a critical one for Pennsylvania in that the GOP victory would continue "the basic economic stagnation that has plagued us for much of the 20th century."

While voters go to the state's 9,424 polling places during the 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. voting period, there were appeals to voters to elect Shafer governor and pick Democrat Leonard Staisey as lieutenant governor.

The GOP candidate for lieutenant governor actually was the party's second choice, since the Republicans slated Atty. Gen. Walter E. Alessandroni, who was killed in a plane crash just days before the May primary. Alessandroni was elected posthumously and the GOP selected Raymond Broderick, a Philadelphia lawyer, to take his place.

Genevieve Blatt, one of the Democrat's best vote-getters, is seeking a fourth four-year term as secretary of internal affairs and is opposed by Republican John K. Tabor, Scranton's commerce secretary.

In the State Superior Court race, both parties have nominated a Negro. Seeking re-election are Republicans G. Harold Watkins and Theodore O. Spaulding, a Negro. Democratic candidates are Clinto Budd Palmer and Juanita Kidd Stout, a Negro from Philadelphia.

Republican James D. Weaver, an ex-congressman, hopes to win back his 24th District seat in Erie County from Democrat Joseph P. Vigorito, the incumbent. In the 19th District, Republican George A. Goodling hopes to win back the seat he lost two years ago to N. Neiman Craley Jr., the Democratic incumbent. Both are from York County.

Philadelphia Republicans are fighting to win their first congressional seat in the state's biggest city since 1958. The seat is being vacated by ailing Democrat Herman Toll and is sought by Democrat Joshua Eilberg and Republican Robert Cohen.

Statewide, the Republicans have been cutting into the state's Democratic majority. There are 80,590 more Democrats than Republicans today. In May there were 93,956 more Democrats and in 1962 the edge was 195,935.

Firm Agrees To Aid Creek Cleaning Job

EAST PALESTINE — The Adamson Manufacturing Co. of E. Clark St. advised Council Monday night the firm will participate in a proposed cleaning of the James St. Creek.

Council has been endeavoring to undertake a clearing of the creek which has flooded many times in the past, primarily due to debris and sediment in the creek bed.

The Adamson firm indicated it will join in the project for the part of the creek which passes under its plant. The city will be responsible for the creek portion under the street. The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. has not yet advised city officials of its intent concerning the project.

Council was advised by William H. Vodrey, secretary-treasurer of the Columbiana County Law Library, the library would participate in up to half of the cost of a planned recodification of the city's ordinances. Council has authorized the $1,050 project.

In other action, Council voted unanimously to endorse "the feasibility of a proposed new city medical center." A number of other city groups have backed the feasibility of the project, which would provide a medical building to attract new physicians.

Raises

general pay raises were voted in 1965, the rank-and-file firemen and police were given 10 per cent boosts, but the raises for the commanding officers averaged 7 per cent.

Radeschi commented that he feels higher pay scales would provide additional incentives for both the commanding officers and the rank-and-file members of the department. Patrolmen and firemen would be encouraged to strive harder in their jobs with the hope of attaining one of the higher paid jobs, he said. In addition, the higher scales would help attract more applicants for Civil Service exams for vacancies, he said.

The caucus session also included a brief discussion of a letter sent to Council by Safety-Service Director Robert E. Vodrey more than a week ago suggesting that the post of police captain be abolished and a fourth lieutenant's post be created instead. But no decision was reached.

Council scheduled an informal meeting for Thursday night at 7:30 in Mayor George Willshaw's office to discuss several problems, including the recommendation to abolish the captain's job.

Don Eckert, chairman of the City Planning Commission, also appeared in the caucus session. He discussed recent work of the Planning Commission and gave a progress report on several projects, including a "demonstration" transportation plan and preparation of proposed zoning ordinances.

Representative Democracy's Triumph

A wave of gratitude engulfs voters in the last hours of every political campaign.

It is like the proverbial relief of hitting yourself on the head with a hammer because it feels good when you quit.

Americans feel that way about political campaigning. It feels good when it stops.

There has been a growing resolve among political professionals in recent years to shorten national campaigns, to make sure public tolerance is not exhausted prematurely.

The British get maximum impact and a good turnout at the polls with much shorter campaigns than are common in the United States. For a national election they campaign only a month at most and sometimes only two weeks.

In the United States, on the other hand campaigning starts after Labor Day and runs two full months, preceded by many weeks of in-and-out politicking during summer months by candidates chosen in springtime primary elections.

BUT EVEN THOUGH the campaigning gets wearisome long before the last speech has been made, the last political advertisement issued and the last public appearance and handshake session endured, one marvelous thing comes out of it all.

It stops.

After Election Day, electioneering vanishes.

Candidates and voters go back to work. No more is heard the voice of the office-seeker anywhere in the land.

The political decision have been made, except for an occasional difference of opinion over a vote so close it cannot be accepted as unalterable, electioneering is out of sight and mind until the next primaries.

This is far and away the most impressive thing about popular government in a nation whose political processes seem so violent foreigners cannot believe we are not conducting civil war.

When a campaign is over and votes have been cast and tallied, bickering and striving for partisan advantage are halted.

Partisanship is put away until the next time.

Political opponents go to lunch together if they feel like it.

Their partisan backers return to a common footing of loyalty to representative democracy.

The country returns to its customary patterns and routines as if nothing had happened.

THERE ARE MANY reasons for being proud of representative democracy—for the way the American people have bettered their lot by proper use of their sovereign power.

No reason is more stirring in its immediate impact or more gratifying in long-range significance than the conduct of political campaigns and elections.

They feel so good when they're finally over. All of us, having made a choice, can go back to work.

We have accomplished what may well be the toughest thing to cope with in self-government — a choice in politics without resorting to violence.

The fact that the choice may be less than perfect is not important.

It's important that the choice could have been made at all without acute dislocation of the governmental process.

Long-Playing Record Stuck

If Americans had not been burned before, they might become optimistic about the latest statements on trends in South Viet Nam.

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara has predicted the draft call may be cut in half for the next four months.

Pentagon officials feel the war may be reaching a turning point because the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese have not increased their troop strength in the last 90 days.

We are well aware that McNamara's statement came on a pre-election weekend and he has been known previously to miss his prediction target.

Also, he did not mention the very real threat of renewal of fighting in Korea.

Pentagon officials also are aware that even if the North Vietnamese stop their troop build-up, the nearly 300,000 already there can carry out a cat-and-mouse war for years.

We would like to take hope from Pentagon predictions and McNamara's muses, but we have heard optimistic utterings before.

The experts have been wrong about the number of troops that would be needed to kill enough enemies of South Viet Nam to end hostilities.

They were wrong about the cost of maintaining such a force.

They also were wrong some months ago when they told Americans that victory was almost in our grasp.

That is why all new estimates, predictions and guesses now have to be taken with a grain of salt.

Cotton Corners

By Truman Twill

Dear Nephew: I couldn't help but remember when the temperature dropped today how we used to suffer in winter.

It was like being poor; we didn't know how bad off we were because we had no standard of comparison.

Winter meant frozen pipes and frozen toes.

Even after inside plumbing, people were busy thawing out frozen pipes because plumbers didn't know how to protect them from outside cold.

There has been more progress in foot comfort than anything else. We simply didn't have good footwear. We used to dry out our shoes under the stove every night, until they curled up at the toes. We oiled them, greased them, massaged them and cursed them. But we couldn't keep our feet warm and our footwear pliant.

As for the rest of our winter protection, we didn't do too bad. The main difference between then and now is the lightness of modern clothing. Everything then was stiff and bulky.

I wonder what people accustomed to modern auto heaters would think of a Model T touring car with the side curtains flapping and no way to get any heat out of the engine.

I wonder what they would think of the rigors we endured with engines that had to be started with cranks, radiators filled with hot water that froze up if the car stopped, treadless tires and hand-activated windshield wipers.

Or take central heating . . .

You haven't lived until you kept a wood fire going all night and jumped out of bed in morning gloom into a cold house that wouldn't get warm again until next summer.

No one who hasn't comprehended the perils of life before inside plumbing can know the American way of life inside out—out to the end of the grape arbor in a blizzard.

When I hear people wonder about the size and weight of today's children I think of whooping cough, croup, grippe, diphtheria, tonsilitis, smallpox, typhoid, pneumonia and scarlet fever and other diseases and afflictions that slowed up the growth of kids and left many handicapped for life.

I think of salt pork, pickled beef, preserved eggs and the way people went for months at a time with no fresh vegetables.

When I hear a sentimentalist prate about going over the river and through the woods to grandmother's house, I hold my sides. Granny doesn't live there any more. The old lady has taken up residence in an all-electric apartment and turns pale when she thinks of the hardships of the bad old days.

Winter is still a climatological curse, but we don't suffer more than a few minutes at a time any more. Say hello to the family for us and plan to spend Thanksgiving with your Aunt Effie and me.

We promise to say nothing about the bad old days.

The Right To Vote

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON

It is very hard for a resident of Washington, D. C., to explain the American Election system to a foreigner. Just the other day a representative of South Viet Nam came here to study our elections so he could go back to his country and report on how the greatest democracy in the world works.

Art Buchwald

Let us call him Tri Vang Vin.

"Whom are you going to vote for on Tuesday?" Tri Vang Vin asked.

"Nobody," I told him. "We're not allowed to vote.

"But how can that be?" Tri Vang Vin asked. "Is this not the capital of the United States?"

"Exactly," I replied. "That's why we're not allowed to vote. You see, anyone who lives in Washington, D. C., may only vote once every four years for the President of the United States. The rest of the time on election day we have to stay at home."

"But who represents you in Congress?"

"Everybody," I said. "A congressman from South Carolina might tell us how much money we can have for schools, a representative from Nevada could dictate how much taxes we have to pay and a senator from West Virginia will tell us what kind of police department we can have. We're too dumb to think for ourselves."

TRI VANG VIN asked, "How can you be a democracy if you cannot decide for yourselves who will represent you?"

"Oh, we are a democracy, all right. That's why we don't have the vote. You must understand that the question of home rule for Washington has been debated many times, and it's always been defeated because Congress claims that if they gave the 800,000 citizens of Washington the right to choose their own government it would be unconstitutional."

"But the people in Washington always keep telling us that we must allow the people of South Viet Nam to vote."

"That's true. They want the people of South Viet Nam to have the vote, but they don't want the people in Washington to have a say in their own affairs. You see, Congress trusts you, but they don't trust us."

"How can I go back to Viet Nam and tell my people that nobody in this city is allowed to vote?"

"It's easy. Just explain to them that in order for us to get the vote we have to persuade Congress to give it to us. Since we have nothing to say about who gets elected to Congress, they aren't about to let us have it."

"Why not?"

"Because Congress likes to run Washington, D. C. If they gave us home rule they wouldn't be able to fix their own traffic tickets."

"AH, THAT I can understand. But if this is true of your capital, why couldn't we decide not to let anyone in Saigon have the vote?"

"Our Congress would never stand for that," I said. "We're pouring a lot of money in there just so all the people in South Viet Nam can decide their own destinies. If you disenfranchized Saigon your elections would be a fraud and a mockery."

"But why aren't your elections a fraud and a mockery if 800,000 people in the nation's capital have nothing to say about their destinies?"

"Because we're not a backward nation. We have spent billions of dollars persuading everyone in the world that the only solution to their problems is free and open elections. And this country believes that everyone should have the God-given right to vote, except, of course, those people who live in the District of Columbia. You see, my friend, the United States has to draw the line somewhere."

Love Of A Gallery

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

The 1966 election campaigns were hardly intellectual. What campaigns are? But the big political mystery of the year was that master politician, President Johnson.

Some day, although it's not in sight in our lifetime, political scientists will be kept busy reflecting on the 20th-century American mind, the politicians' and the voters'.

Instead of debating the issues exhaustively on television so the people could reach reasonable judgments on them and their ideas, the politicians spent much of their time trying to persuade the voters by shaking hands.

THE EXPLANATION is simple: It's a way of keeping in the public eye and maybe the public mind. Since this is an ancient custom, it wasn't unique in 1966. Johnson himself has no equal in this field as "presser of the flesh."

Sir Winston Churchill understood the public eye bit very early as a young man who wanted to get elected to Parliament but first had to make an impression.

When he was on the Northwest Indian frontier in 1897 Churchill wrote a letter to his mother — it's in the just-published first volume of a three-volume biography by his son, Randolph S. Churchill — which said:

"I rode my grey pony all along the skirmish line where everyone else was lying down in cover. Foolish perhaps but I play for high stakes and given an audience there is no act too daring or too noble. Without the gallery, things are different."

Still, it was strange to see Sen. Paul H. Douglas, Illinois Democrat and one of the truly intellectual members of Congress, waiting outside factory gates to shake hands with men he had never met and probably wouldn't again.

But it was all mutual.

People who might have voted more intelligently if they had spent more time studying the issues and what the candidates said, turned out in thousands to see the politicians and bowled one another over in the rush to shake hands with Johnson, or Sen. Robert F. Kennedy or some lesser light running for office.

IN CONGRESS, Johnson needs all the Democrats he can get. Even if the Republicans today capture 30 or so House seats, the Democrats would still have a majority and keep control.

But the fewer the Democrats, the harder it will be for Johnson to get his programs through these next two years. And his success with programs may affect his chances for re-election in 1968.

Nevertheless, although a lot of his Democrats needed help, he actually did little campaigning for them and in October, as the campaigns reached their peak, he went off on a 17-day trip to Asia.

Since he undoubtedly could have postponed this until after the election, the unanswered question is: Why did he do it when he did?

Perhaps he thought the headlines he'd make every day as the American commander in chief around the world would do his Democrats more good than any number of speeches he might have made at home.

There's no evidence they did. But Johnson has a lot in common with Churchill. Both men sought name and recognition all their lives. And Johnson, as Churchill did, loves a gallery.

County School Site Opposed

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

The members of the United Commercial Travelers 590 of Salem, with membership of over 1,000 in Columbiana County, are opposed to the proposed site of the Columbiana County School for Retarded Children on Route 7, north of Rogers.

We have investigated the proposed site, by committee, and find the site undesirable for the following reasons:

1.—It is not centrally located, lying approximately six miles from the Pennsylvania state line.

2.—The site is located on a hazardous hill.

3.—The proposed honor farm for delinquent boys across the road is not compatible to the retarded school.

4.—According to a state geologist report, the water supply at this site is questionable and might require an additional well and storage tank.

5.—We object to the expenditure of $10,000 for the grading of the proposed site when we understand that an 18-acre site centrally located near Lisbon may be purchased for $10,000, with the possibility of water and sewers from Lisbon being extended to this site within a year.

The United Commercial Travelers of America has retarded children as its No. 1 national project. Salem Council 590 in the year 1961 raised approximately $1,000 and presented it to the Retarded Children's Council of Columbiana County to operate the school, this being done before the tax levy was voted in.

We feel that a more centrally - located site would provide more efficient operation and an overall savings of taxpayers' dollars.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

It is very gratifying to comment on the good behavior, in general, of youngsters during the recent Halloween season.

However, as usual, there were some exceptions, which one can understand.

Two juveniles old enough to know better stopped at a home on Pennsylvania Ave. occupied by a Mrs. James Rhodes, who had baked some pies for a special order. She placed them in a closed-in porch to cool. After the usual salutation, the two boys demanded they be given a pie.

Mrs. Rhodes advised them the pies were baked for a special order.

They returned later and picked up a white Angora cat, the property of the Rhodes. They then proceeded to saturate the cat with gasoline, which they lit. The cat ran all over the neighborhood, giving out agonizing cries while it was burning to death.

The following night the boys returned and placed the burnt remains of the cat on Mrs. Rhodes' doorstep. The lady is not in good health and what took place was such a shock that it was necessary for her to be taken to a hospital for treatment.

The mother of one of the boys offered to give Mrs. Rhodes another cat to replace the one destroyed.

Certainly these boys should not be allowed to escape punishment, which should be as severe as the law permits.

We, the residents of East Liverpool, have a tremendous responsibility cast upon us today.

All over the state of Ohio people will be watching to see what we do. In two years we will have a $10-million school system, the very best in the state of Ohio. Why should we cut the expense of operating our schools at such a critical time?

Any citizen who loves children or grandchildren should have no doubt if he or she wants to give those children the very best education—and that is what they must have to get along in the world of tomorrow.

Citizens who have no children should want to make their community a better place in which to live today and tomorrow. Having a first-class school system and assuring our citizens of tomorrow of the best education available assures this.

Representative Democracy's Triumph

A wave of gratitude engulfs voters in the last hours of every political campaign.

It is like the proverbial relief of hitting yourself on the head with a hammer because it feels good when you quit.

Americans feel that way about political campaigning. It feels good when it stops.

There has been a growing resolve among political professionals in recent years to shorten national campaigns, to make sure public tolerance is not exhausted prematurely.

The British get maximum impact and a good turnout at the polls with much shorter campaigns than are common in the United States. For a national election they campaign only a month at most and sometimes only two weeks.

In the United States, on the other hand, campaigning starts after Labor Day and runs two full months, preceded by many weeks of in-and-out politicking during summer months by candidates chosen in springtime primary elections.

BUT EVEN THOUGH the campaigning gets wearisome long before the last speech has been made, the last political advertisement issued and the last public appearance and handshake session endured, one marvelous thing comes out of it all.

It stops.

After Election Day, electioneering vanishes.

Candidates and voters go back to work. No more is heard the voice of the office-seeker anywhere in the land.

The political decision have been made, except for an occasional difference of opinion over a vote so close it cannot be accepted as unalterable, electioneering is out of sight and mind until the next primaries.

This is far and away the most impressive thing about popular government in a nation whose political processes seem so violent foreigners cannot believe we are not conducting civil war.

When a campaign is over and votes have been cast and tallied, bickering and striving for partisan advantage are halted.

Partisanship is put away until the next time.

Political opponents go to lunch together if they feel like it.

Their partisan backers return to a common footing of loyalty to representative democracy.

The country returns to its customary patterns and routines as if nothing had happened.

THERE ARE MANY reasons for being proud of representative democracy—for the way the American people have bettered their lot by proper use of their sovereign power.

No reason is more stirring in its immediate impact or more gratifying in long-range significance than the conduct of political campaigns and elections.

They feel so good when they're finally over. All of us, having made a choice, can go back to work.

We have accomplished what may well be the toughest thing to cope with in self-government — a choice in politics without resorting to violence.

The fact that the choice may be less than perfect is not important.

It's important that the choice could have been made at all without acute dislocation of the governmental process.

Long-Playing Record Stuck

If Americans had not been burned before, they might become optimistic about the latest statements on trends in South Viet Nam.

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara has predicted the draft call may be cut in half for the next four months.

Pentagon officials feel the war may be reaching a turning point because the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese have not increased their troop strength in the last 90 days.

We are well aware that McNamara's statement came on a pre-election weekend and he has been known previously to miss his prediction target.

Also, he did not mention the very real threat of renewal of fighting in Korea.

Pentagon officials also are aware that even if the North Vietnamese stop their troop buildup, the nearly 300,000 already there can carry out a cat-and-mouse war for years.

We would like to take hope from Pentagon predictions and McNamara's muses, but we have heard optimistic utterings before.

The experts have been wrong about the number of troops that would be needed to kill enough enemies of South Viet Nam to end hostilities.

They were wrong about the cost of maintaining such a force.

They also were wrong some months ago when they told Americans that victory was almost in our grasp.

That is why all new estimates, predictions and guesses now have to be taken with a grain of salt.

Dear Nephew: I couldn't help but remember when the temperature dropped today how we used to suffer in winter.

It was like being poor; we didn't know how bad off we were because we had no standard of comparison.

Winter meant frozen pipes and frozen toes.

Even after inside plumbing, people were busy thawing out frozen pipes because plumbers didn't know how to protect them from outside cold.

There has been more progress in foot comfort than anything else. We simply didn't have good footwear. We used to dry out our shoes under the stove every night, until they curled up at the toes. Prostitution Ring Broken; 13 Indicted

CLEVELAND (AP) — Eight men and five women were indicted by a federal grand jury Monday on charges of operating a prostitution ring in Ohio, Illinois and Tennessee for several years.

The FBI made nine arrests in two states.

Seven of the persons involved, including four men and three women, were arrested here. Two other men were arrested in Illinois and agents still are seeking two more men and women.

The indictments charged that the men and women traveled from city to city through the three-state area and set up operations. The FBI in Washington did not name all cities involved, but said three cities named in the charges included Cleveland, Memphis, Tenn., and Peoria, Ill.

The FBI said the ring operated out of hotels, apartments and rooming houses.

U.S. Atty. Merle M. McCurdy said the indictments resulted from a three-year investigation by the FBI.

The seven arrested were: William J. Kramzar Jr., 32, a bartender; Kathleen J. Farrell, 27, an unemployed divorcee; Harvey C. Gibson, 38, a bartender, all of Cleveland; and Geraldine Carstairs, 27, alias Geraldine Richards, of Springfield, Ill.; Julie Adams, 29, and Richard Bell, 42; both of Tallula, Ill.; and Eugene F. Herron, 33, of Peoria, Ill.

Also arrested in their home towns were Elmer D. Poos, 34, of Springfield, Ill., and Donald Siekman, 31, of Lincoln, Ill.

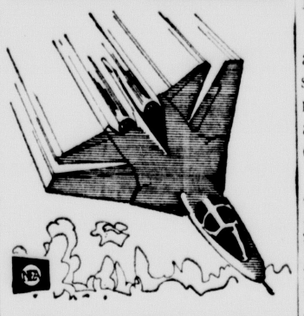

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover identified those still sought as Theresa Williams, 35, of Peoria; Alice Sams, 26, and Kenneth Dunham, 33, of Cleveland; and Philip A. Lance, 36, of Peoria.

All those involved except Gibson were charged with "traveling in interstate commerce with the intent of carrying on a business enterprise involving prostitution and performing acts facilitating these prostitution activities," the FBI said.

Gibson was charged with two counts of violating the white slave traffic act.

Mrs. Carstairs was released on $1,500 personal bond when she told Judge Girard E. Kalbfleisch that she had a 4-year-old son in a nursery school.

Board Will Re-Advertise Sale Of Klondyke School

No bids for the purchase of the Klondyke School in East End were submitted to the Board of Education during its meeting Monday night.

Mrs. Nessie Dunlop, board president, announced at the opening of the session that the sale at "public auction" and asked for bids.

Since none was received, the board voted to re-advertise the sale of the property. The board is required by law to offer the property for sale twice. If there are no bidders, it then can enter into private negotiations with interested parties.

THE SCHOOL was closed this term and will not be reopened, being abandoned in conjunction with the new building program.

Miss Kathryn Liebschner, clerk, reported on a request from the Civil Service Commission for payment by the board of a share of the commission's expenses. The board has not paid for such services previously.

Miss Liebschner said an equitable sum could be based on a per capita basis of the number of employes under Civil Service. Figured on the 1965 expenses of the commission, this would cost the board approximately $290 a year.

The law does not require boards of education to help pay the expenses, but says it "may do so" and points out boards should have a moral obligation to share the costs.

The board filed the request until an equitable share is determined.

The financial report showed a total of $409,115 in all funds.

Four rentals of school property were approved. Tri - State Little League Football, Patterson Field, Nov. 24, custodial fees; Patterson Industries, Westgate auditorium, Dec. 17, for a Christmas party for children of employes, $20 and custodial fees; Wellsville Jaycees, Westgate auditorium, Dec. 29-30, for the Columbiana County Junior Miss pagent, $20 and custodial fees for the first night and $50 and custodial fees for the second, and Crockery City Hunting Club, Westgate auditorium, March 28, 1967, for showing of a film as a fund project, $100 and custodial fees.

The board also discussed widening Bank St. for bus traffic. Robert Beatty, architect, said the city is considering all the projects at once.

Mrs. Mary Eleanor Thompson was appointed a full-time commercial instructor, effective last Oct. 17, for the high school. She had been substituting, but has accepted full employment for the first semester.

Miss Edith Manor, a retired teacher, was named a commercial instructor on a half-day assignment.

Ronald Griffith, who taught last year at Westgate, was employed as a high school English teacher.

Ben Garvin was named to the custodial staff. He had been substituting.

Supt. Paul Blair said Veterans Day will be observed Friday in the city schools with special programs at 11 a. m. A period of silence will be observed for deceased veterans and service men in Viet Nam.

The high school band will form in front of the building and march to City Hall to place a wreath in front of the veterans' memorial there. The program at Westgate will begin at 2 p.m.

Harry McConville, board member, complimented Blair and Carl Pelini, assistant superintendent, for the county teachers' workshop conducted at Westgate. He said the teachers from other districts called it "outstanding." Blair pointed out Pelini and his secretary "did most of the work."

Richard Smith, board member, thanked The Review, radio station WOHI and all others who have supported the 3.5 - mill school levy which was on today's ballot.

Thirteen visitors attended the meeting.

Beatles Rumored Breaking Up. No Plans For Future

LONDON (AP) — Amid reports that the Beatles may be breaking up, a spokesman for the mop-topped singing group said today they have no plans to appear together in the near future.

Brian Epstein, the quartet's manager, last week turned down an invitation for them to appear in a special television program for the benefit of residents of the Welsh village of Aberfan, where more than 140 persons were killed last month by an avalanche of coal mine waste.

In the past year they have struck out more and more on their own.

John Lennon, 26, has been making a movie in Spain and Germany for which his hair was cropped.

George Harrison, 23, has grown a mustache and is learning to play the sitar, an Indian stringed instrument.

Ringo Starr, 26, has just returned from a holiday abroad. He has been trying his hand at solo compositions.

Paul McCartney, 24, has also grown a mustache and has been working on the score for a British film.

Leukemia Takes Psychiatrist In Jack Ruby Trial

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — Dr. Manfred S. Guttmacher, chief defense psychiatrist in the 1964 murder trial of Jack Ruby, died of leukemia at City Hospitals Monday night at the age of 68.

The internationally known psychiatrist championed the cause of psychiatric science in the courtroom, and this led him into many noted cases—including the Ruby trial.

Guttmacher testified that Ruby, a Dallas night club operator, was legally insane when he killed Lee Harvey Oswald—the man identified by the Warren Commission as the assassin of President John F. Kennedy.

After Ruby was convicted, Guttmacher said he was convinced Ruby "had a good case from the point of view of legal irresponsibility."

Guttmacher had been chief medical advisor to Baltimore Criminal Courts since 1930, and had published hundreds of papers and books on psychiatry and crime.

McNamara Hits At Behavior Of 50 At Harvard

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara criticized the behavior of antiwar demonstrators Monday when they jeered him at Harvard University.

McNamara, leaving a Harvard residence hall after speaking to 50 students of the John Fitzgerald Kennedy Institute of Politics, was greeted by a crowd of 400 assembled on the steps of the Quincy House. Most of them carried placards and shouted slogans in support of the Johnson administration's policies in Viet Nam.

Others in the crowd were from a local student organization opposed to the war. They booed and jeered.

McNamara told the crowd he had spent some of the "happiest years" of his life at Harvard when he attended the Harvard Business School during World War II as an Army officer. He was drowned out by screams and boos.

Visibly angry, he said, "I might add that I was a lot tougher and a lot more courteous than you."

LBJ Discloses Camp Will Take Saxon's Position

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson disclosed today that he will replace James J. Saxon, the controversial comptroller of the currency, with a Treasury Department career official.

Johnson, emerging from his polling place here, said Saxon's term will expire Nov. 15. He said William B. Camp, the first deputy comptroller, will be nominated to take over Saxon's job.

Saxon, a Chicago bank attorney before becoming comptroller of the currency early in the Kennedy administration, announced some time ago that he was not a candidate for a new term.

As the regulator of national banks, Saxon has pursued an independent course that has brought him into frequent conflict with the Federal Reserve Board and, on bank antitrust matters, the Justice Department.

Camp, 53, has worked in the comptroller's office for about 36 years. Johnson told reporters. The President called him "the best equipped and the best qualified man available for the position."

Camp spent the night at the LBJ Ranch and accompanied the President to the polling place here.

No Bids Are Received

Board Will Re-Advertise Sale Of Klondyke School

No bids for the purchase of the Klondyke School in East End were submitted to the Board of Education during its meeting Monday night.

Mrs. Nessie Dunlop, board president, announced at the opening of the session that the sale at "public auction" and asked for bids.

Since none was received, the board voted to re-advertise the sale of the property. The board is required by law to offer the property for sale twice. If there are no bidders, it then can enter into private negotiations with interested parties.

THE SCHOOL was closed this term and will not be reopened, being abandoned in conjunction with the new building program.

Miss Kathryn Liebschner, clerk, reported on a request from the Civil Service Commission for payment by the board of a share of the commission's expenses. The board has not paid for such services previously.

Miss Liebschner said an equitable sum could be based on a per capita basis of the number of employes under Civil Service. Figured on the 1965 expenses of the commission, this would cost the board approximately $290 a year.

The law does not require boards of education to help pay the expenses, but says it "may do so" and points out boards should have a moral obligation to share the costs.

The board filed the request until an equitable share is determined.

The financial report showed a total of $409,115 in all funds.

Four rentals of school property were approved. Tri - State Little League Football, Patterson Field, Nov. 24, custodial fees; Patterson Industries, Westgate auditorium, Dec. 17, for a Christmas party for children of employes, $20 and custodial fees; Wellsville Jaycees, Westgate auditorium, Dec. 29-30, for the Columbiana County Junior Miss pagent, $20 and custodial fees for the first night and $50 and custodial fees for the second, and Crockery City Hunting Club, Westgate auditorium, March 28, 1967, for showing of a film as a fund project, $100 and custodial fees.

A COPY OF a letter to City Council from George S. Bloomgren, city engineer, was read. It recommends Council proceed with extension of sanitary and storm sewers to the Hill Blvd. area to service the proposed new high school and North Elementary buildings.

The board also discussed widening Bank St. for bus traffic. Robert Beatty, architect, said the city is considering all the projects at once.

Mrs. Mary Eleanor Thompson was appointed a full-time commercial instructor, effective last Oct. 17, for the high school. She had been substituting, but has accepted full employment for the first semester.

Miss Edith Manor, a retired teacher, was named a commercial instructor on a half-day assignment.

Ronald Griffith, who taught last year at Westgate, was employed as a high school English teacher.

Ben Garvin was named to the custodial staff. He had been substituting.

Supt. Paul Blair said Veterans Day will be observed Friday in the city schools with special programs at 11 a. m. A period of silence will be observed for deceased veterans and service men in Viet Nam.

The high school band will form in front of the building and march to City Hall to place a wreath in front of the veterans' memorial there. The program at Westgate will begin at 2 p.m.

Harry McConville, board member, complimented Blair and Carl Pelini, assistant superintendent, for the county teachers' workshop conducted at Westgate. He said the teachers from other districts called it "outstanding." Blair pointed out Pelini and his secretary "did most of the work."

Richard Smith, board member, thanked The Review, radio station WOHI and all others who have supported the 3.5 - mill school levy which was on today's ballot.

Thirteen visitors attended the meeting.

HAROLD WEST, attendance officer, reported 217 cases investigated during October.

Absence investigations show 82 for personal illness; 4 to be in court; 5 for family illness; 2 for deaths in family; 5 for moving of residence; 4 for poverty and school aid; 37 for truancy; 23 kept out by parents; 8 erroneously reported; 11 for working, and 36 miscellaneous.

Edna Jones, school nurse, said 3,105 children in the first, third, fifth, seventh, 10th and 12th grades received tuberculosis tests during October. Ten had positive Mantoux tests and are being X-rayed.

She had 102 home calls, made 96 visits to schools, conducted 538 physical examinations and had 179 first-aid treatments.

Her work also included checking immunization records and collecting and distributing clothing.

America's Gemini Series To Reach End Wednesday

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — America's Gemini series reaches the end of the road Wednesday when the Gemini 12 astronauts blast off on a four-day mission which may determine man's physical limitations in space.

Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. and Air Force Maj. Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. spent today reviewing their flight plan and talking with Gemini officials as launch crews prepared for the double liftoff.

An Atlas is to thunder skyward at 2:16 p.m. (EST) to boost an Agena satellite into orbit as a rendezvous target. A Titan 2 is to hurl the astronauts into space at 3:55 p.m.

The afternoon launchings were determined by three factors: lighting conditions required for the rendezvous; to avoid high radiation when Aldrin pokes his head outside the spacecraft at an altitude of 469 miles, and to place the astronauts in position Saturday to photograph a total eclipse of the sun over South America.

"Men and machinery are ready," a spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported.

The flight will close out the highly successful program which has tested all the techniques that American astronauts will use on Apollo man-to-the-moon flights. The first earth orbital flight of a threeman Apollo ship is scheduled early next year.

Highlights of the Gemini 12 mission will be a third-orbit rendezvous and linkup with the Agena, practicing many maneuvers that Apollo astronauts must make during their return trip from the moon, three work sessions outside the spacecraft by Aldrin, and photography of the eclipse and of a sodium cloud to be released high above the earth by a French rocket launched from Algeria.

The extravehicular activity by Aldrin will be the most important goal of the flight. The 36-year-old former Korean combat pilot is to spend nearly five hours performing tasks outside during a space walk and two stand-up exercises in which he'll extend the upper half of his body into space.

While performing simple tasks and pacing himself with frequent rests, Aldrin will attempt to determine what problems face a man trying to work in a vacuum in a pressurized space suit.

America's last three space walkers all had trouble during their excursions, primarily because of difficulty maintaining position in the weightless world. Two of the walks were cut short when the astronauts became fatigued doing simple tasks. The third was halted early because of a shortage of spacecraft fuel.

To help Aldrin move about outside, handrails, waist tethers and foot restraints have been placed along the Gemini craft and on the Agena.

Two "work benches" have been built on the Agena and at the rear of the spacecraft where Aldrin is to make electrical connections, mate rings and hooks, and loosen and tighten bolts.

The flight is to end Sunday afternoon with a splashdown in the Atlantic Ocean.

eralize legislators' state-paid expenses.

The other three amendments, all of which have been vigorously supported by the governor and other state officials, are:

— Better Schools Amendment, to lower from 60 per cent to a simple majority the margin required for approval in school financing elections in counties.

— Constitutional improvement amendment, to permit voting on constitutional amendments in special as well as general elections.

—Judicial amendment to allow the legislature to create additional circuit judgeships.

Randolph, 54, has been campaigning hard in an effort to secure a victory by Love, 65, a former congressman from Wheeling.

Although vigorous, Randolph and Love have waged a purely gentlemen's campaign. "It is my feeling we have done as people would have us do — conduct a campaign with vigor but with propriety," Randolph told Love in the closing hours of the campaign.

It is Randolph's bid for a second full term and would be Love's first try for a U.S. Senate seat. Love was elected to the House in 1946, but was defeated in 1948 by Democrat Robert L. Ramsay.

All of the five House of Representative incumbents appear headed for re-election, with the state's only Republican, Rep. Arch Moore Jr., apparently headed for his sixth term from the 1st District.

William H. Kidd, 48-year-old lawyer from Sutton, is challenging Moore for the seat. Kidd has been twice elected Braxton County prosecutor and is a former state legislator.

In the other districts, the Democratic incumbents and their challengers are:

— 2nd District, Rep. Harley O. Staggers seeks 10th term, running against George . Strader of Buckhannon.

— 3rd District, Rep. John M. Slack Jr., faces Mal Guthrie.

— 4th District, Rep. Ken Hechler is up against another Huntington man, Republican Harry D. Pinkie Humphreys.

— 5th District, Rep. James Kee faces 25-year-old Elizabeth Ann Bowen.

In local races, Republicans will be out to better their position in the House of Delegates, which last term had 91 Democrats and nine Republicans.

America's Gemini Series To Reach End Wednesday

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — America's Gemini series reaches the end of the road Wednesday when the Gemini 12 astronauts blast off on a four-day mission which may determine man's physical limitations in space.

Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. and Air Force Maj. Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. spent today reviewing their flight plan and talking with Gemini officials as launch crews prepared for the double liftoff.

An Atlas is to thunder skyward at 2:16 p.m. (EST) to boost an Agena satellite into orbit as a rendezvous target. A Titan 2 is to hurl the astronauts into space at 3:55 p.m.

The afternoon launchings were determined by three factors: lighting conditions required for the rendezvous; to avoid high radiation when Aldrin pokes his head outside the spacecraft at an altitude of 469 miles, and to place the astronauts in position Saturday to photograph a total eclipse of the sun over South America.

"Men and machinery are ready," a spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported.

The flight will close out the highly successful program which has tested all the techniques that American astronauts will use on Apollo man-to-the-moon flights. The first earth orbital flight of a threeman Apollo ship is scheduled early next year.

Highlights of the Gemini 12 mission will be a third-orbit rendezvous and linkup with the Agena, practicing many maneuvers that Apollo astronauts must make during their return trip from the moon, three work sessions outside the spacecraft by Aldrin, and photography of the eclipse and of a sodium cloud to be released high above the earth by a French rocket launched from Algeria.

The extravehicular activity by Aldrin will be the most important goal of the flight. The 36-year-old former Korean combat pilot is to spend nearly five hours performing tasks outside during a space walk and two stand-up exercises in which he'll extend the upper half of his body into space.

While performing simple tasks and pacing himself with frequent rests, Aldrin will attempt to determine what problems face a man trying to work in a vacuum in a pressurized space suit.

America's last three space walkers all had trouble during their excursions, primarily because of difficulty maintaining position in the weightless world. Two of the walks were cut short when the astronauts became fatigued doing simple tasks. The third was halted early because of a shortage of spacecraft fuel.

To help Aldrin move about outside, handrails, waist tethers and foot restraints have been placed along the Gemini craft and on the Agena.

Two "work benches" have been built on the Agena and at the rear of the spacecraft where Aldrin is to make electrical connections, mate rings and hooks, and loosen and tighten bolts.

The flight is to end Sunday afternoon with a splashdown in the Atlantic Ocean.

eralize legislators' state-paid expenses.

The other three amendments, all of which have been vigorously supported by the governor and other state officials, are:

— Better Schools Amendment, to lower from 60 per cent to a simple majority the margin required for approval in school financing elections in counties.

— Constitutional improvement amendment, to permit voting on constitutional amendments in special as well as general elections.

—Judicial amendment to allow the legislature to create additional circuit judgeships.

Randolph, 54, has been campaigning hard in an effort to secure a victory by Love, 65, a former congressman from Wheeling.

Although vigorous, Randolph and Love have waged a purely gentlemen's campaign. "It is my feeling we have done as people would have us do — conduct a campaign with vigor but with propriety," Randolph told Love in the closing hours of the campaign.

It is Randolph's bid for a second full term and would be Love's first try for a U.S. Senate seat. Love was elected to the House in 1946, but was defeated in 1948 by Democrat Robert L. Ramsay.

All of the five House of Representative incumbents appear headed for re-election, with the state's only Republican, Rep. Arch Moore Jr., apparently headed for his sixth term from the 1st District.

William H. Kidd, 48-year-old lawyer from Sutton, is challenging Moore for the seat. Kidd has been twice elected Braxton County prosecutor and is a former state legislator.

In the other districts, the Democratic incumbents and their challengers are:

— 2nd District, Rep. Harley O. Staggers seeks 10th term, running against George . Strader of Buckhannon.

— 3rd District, Rep. John M. Slack Jr., faces Mal Guthrie.

— 4th District, Rep. Ken Hechler is up against another Huntington man, Republican Harry D. Pinkie Humphreys.

— 5th District, Rep. James Kee faces 25-year-old Elizabeth Ann Bowen.

In local races, Republicans will be out to better their position in the House of Delegates, which last term had 91 Democrats and nine Republicans.

For Barn At Children's Home

Hancock Commissioners Will Ask Ruling On Funds

Matters relative to financing the proposed construction of a new barn at the Hancock County Children's Home were discussed during a meeting of the county commissioners Monday at the Courthouse in New Cumberland.

Dick Wright, home board member, reported that the children's home budget has some $16,000 left over from last year and requested the use of these funds.

Floyd Tarr, court attorney, said money carried over could not be used if the appropriate item had not appeared on the budget submitted for the current fiscal year.

James Finley, court president and chairman of the home board, reported that the state tax commissioner in Charleston had informed him that surplus money could be used for any project.

Tarr again expressed a negative opinion, commenting, "The mere fact that you have money left over does not mean it should be spent."

Following further discussion, it was decided that Tarr should write the state attorney general requesting his legal opinion.

Andrew J. Kondik, county Civil Defense director, reported that a small amount of radioactivity had been recorded on monitoring instruments following the recent Red Chinese atomic test.

He also submitted reports on the governor's Civil Defense conference in Charleston Oct. 11, and the recent Civil Defense meeting in Louisville, Ky., both of which he attended.

He said further that an additional 7,000 sites have been selected for potential conversion into emergency shelters.

A bid of $2,100 was accepted from Central Service of Newell for a new cruiser for the use of the sheriff's department.

The commissioners tabled action on the purchase of a photocopying machine for the circuit court clerk, a new radio for Carl Kirkland, conservation officer, and two tax receipting machines for the sheriff's department.

The next meeting will be Dec. 6.

His petition was one of several filed this year by men seeking vacation of prison sentences handed down in this county. All claimed they were not accorded their constitutional rights.

Starr is serving 10 to 25 years on conviction of a $27 armed robbery of a Pennsylvania Railroad station agent Jan. 20, 1959, in Salem. He also was sentenced to 1 to 3 years for carrying a concealed weapon, a charge to which he pleaded guilty after conviction on the armed robbery charge.

He also submitted reports on the governor's Civil Defense conference in Charleston Oct. 11, and the recent Civil Defense meeting in Louisville, Ky., both of which he attended.

He said further that an additional 7,000 sites have been selected for potential conversion into emergency shelters.

A bid of $2,100 was accepted from Central Service of Newell for a new cruiser for the use of the sheriff's department.

The commissioners tabled action on the purchase of a photocopying machine for the circuit court clerk, a new radio for Carl Kirkland, conservation officer, and two tax receipting machines for the sheriff's department.

The next meeting will be Dec. 6.

Buzzard Upheld By Appeals Court On Inmate's Plea

LISBON — The judgment of Judge Raymond S. Buzzard of Columbiana County Common Pleas Court in denying a bid for freedom by an Ohio State Penitentiary inmate was affirmed Monday by the 7th District Court of Appeals.

Wayne L. Starr, 34, formerly of Philadelphia, appealed to the tribunal in July after Judge Buzzard refused to vacate his sentence for armed robbery.

His petition was one of several filed this year by men seeking vacation of prison sentences handed down in this county. All claimed they were not accorded their constitutional rights.

Starr is serving 10 to 25 years on conviction of a $27 armed robbery of a Pennsylvania Railroad station agent Jan. 20, 1959, in Salem. He also was sentenced to 1 to 3 years for carrying a concealed weapon, a charge to which he pleaded guilty after conviction on the armed robbery charge.

The Appellate Court said it reviewed all the papers in the case and found no errors apparent on the record.

Potential Presidential Nominees

Political Analysts Watch Voting Today For Trends

WASHINGTON (AP) — Political analysts studying election returns tonight will be looking for trends, the rise and fall of potential presidential nominees and the effect of such widely discussed subjects as the "white backlash" and the Viet Nam war.

Here are some areas to watch:

Trends — Six bellwether House districts have reflected changes in congressional party lines over the past decade. The six are the Connecticut 4th, Pennsylvania 19th, Iowa 4th, Indiana 9th, Wisconsin 1st and Ohio 10th. They are among 44 House districts, currently represented by first-term Democrats, which were held by Republicans before 1964. Practically all of the 44 Democrats are solid supporters of the Johnson administration.

Congressional control — Democrats are assured of retaining Senate control and are expected to keep House control, but with a smaller majority than their current ratio of 295 to 140. A switch of just 25 House seats from pro-Johnson Democrats to anti-Johnson Republicans would have meant the defeat of such key Johnson domestic measures as medicare, open housing, rent supplements and demonstration cities. Thus, even fewer GOP gains than the off-year average of 40 could mean Johnson might have to settle for a less ambitious domestic program over the next two years and might threaten funding for such approved programs as rent supplements and demonstration cities.

Effect on parties — Results might give a big boost to several Republicans prominently mentioned as presidential possibilities for 1968, including Govs. George Romney of Michigan and James A. Rhodes of Ohio, gubernatorial nominee Ronald Reagan in California and senatorial candidate Charles H. Percy in Illinois. Big GOP congressional gains might help Richard M. Nixon, the party's chief campaigner.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's national prestige may be affected by whether Democrat Karl F. Rolvaag is re-elected governor of Minnesota. Sen. Robert F. Kennedy could receive a boost if fellow Democrat Frank D. O'Connor defeats Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in New York.

A big victory for Mrs. George C. Wallace as Alabama governor would increase the prospect that her husband will make a third- party presidential bid in 1968, as would victories by such anti- Johnson Democratic gubernatorial candidates as Jim Johnson in Arkansas and Lester C. Maddox in Georgia.

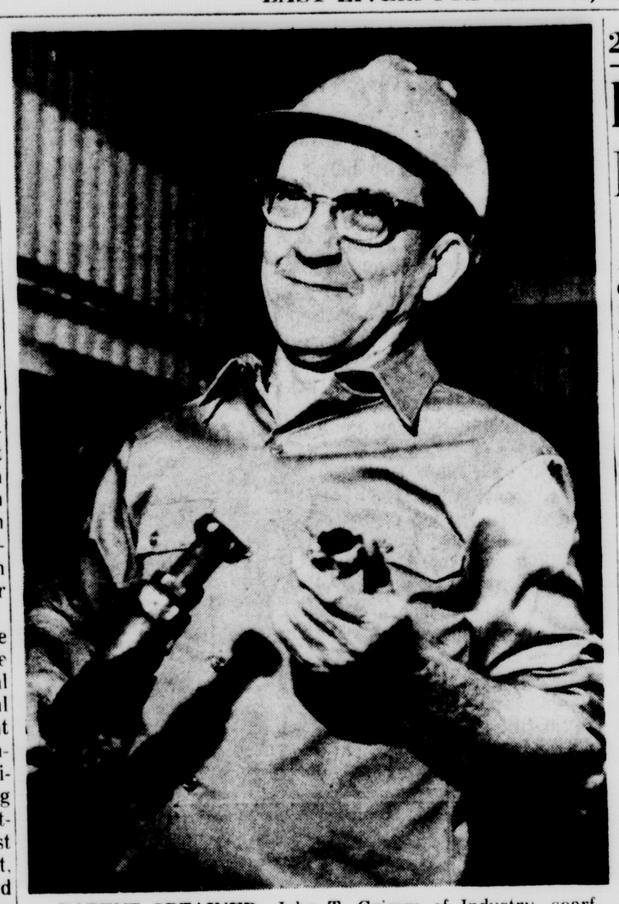

White backlash — the white backlash, a term used to denote adverse white reaction to racial violence, could influence several races. In Maryland, Democrat George P. Mahoney's gubernatorial primary victory was attributed to his anti-open housing stand. His views have been attacked as racist and extremist by his Republican opponent, Spiro T. Agnew, Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California has accused his Republican opponent, Reagan, of appealing to backlash sentiment. In Massachusetts, the effort by Republican Edward R. Brooke to become the first Negro senator since Reconstruction may be determined by whether a significant backlash exists.

Viet Nam — While Viet Nam has faded as a major national issue, it has been widely discussed in several campaigns. In Oregon, Republican Gov. Mark O. Hatfield claims the war is no longer an issue in his senatorial bid. But his opponent, Democratic Rep. Robert B. Duncan, disagrees and would undoubtedly point to a victory as a vote of confidence in President Johnson's policies. In New Hampshire, Republican Harrison R. Thyng has based his campaign against Sen. Thomas J. McIntyre on a demand for a quick end to the war by bombing of North Viet Nam.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The sticker attached to the rear of an auto in a downtown parking lot bore this plaintive plea:

Disaster Teams Striving To Halt Po River Threat

ROME (AP) — Disaster teams manned the dikes around the clock today in the Po River delta, fighting to keep Italy's mightiest river from unleashing new floods.

Earth moving machinery, bucket cranes, sandbags, picks, shovels and floodlights were thrown into the feverish operation south of Venice. The Po rose about an inch an hour during the night.

Only about 4,000 of the delta's 10,000 inhabitants had left their homes Monday night, but increased concern over the resistance of the dikes caused the number of evacuees to mount.

Rescue and relief work continued full scale throughout five regions of northern and central Italy stricken in last weekend's unprecedented floods. The economy of one-third of the nation was wrecked, and a Cabinet meeting was called today to form an emergency aid plan.

Military helicopters flew 300 missions Monday with food and medicine to persons stranded in precarious locations.

Columns of trucks carried huge plastic bags of fresh water communities whose pipelines were broken or contaminated.

Interior Minister Paolo Emilio Taviani told Parliament there were 72 identified dead and 35 missing, but casualty reports were far from complete. Estimates of the dead ran as high as 300.

In Florence, storehouse of many of Italy's Renaissance art treasures, the Arno River took a heavy toll of paintings, antique manuscripts, rare books and records. Scholars and curators dug through the slime and mud left in the city's museums and art galleries to compile a list of the damaged art treasures and to salvage what they could. Repairs could take years.

Damage was most severe in the Uffizi Gallery, the Santa Croce Basilica, the Cathedral Baptistry, the National Library and the State Archives.

Records of centuries, paintings, sketches, rare manuscripts and other art works were still under water in the Uffizi basement and at the National Library and State Archives.

Four Brothers Perish In Fire Near Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Four young brothers perished Monday when fire roared through their frame home in nearby Clairton.

The victims were Robert Powell, 8; David, 7; Donald, 2; and Terry, 11 months.

Their father, Robert, 29, was cleaning tools with gasoline in the living room, firemen said, and some gas spilled and was ignited by a heater.

Powell was detained in serious condition with burns at McKeesport Hospital.

The blaze was raging out of control by the time firemen reached the scene. Firemen said they had the fire nearly out, then some cans of paint thinner exploded, rekindling the flames.

The mother, Shirley, and another child, Sandra, 3, were visiting with relatives in nearby Jefferson Borough at the time.

7 Churches Join In Youth Meeting

Youth groups from seven churches attended a Steubenville Youth Presbytery District I meeting at the Riverside United Presbyterian Church in Wellsville Sunday night.

Approximately 75 members from Calcutta, Glenmoor, Longs Run, Oak Ridge, Riverside, Trinity and Yellow Creek churches participated.

Four groups discussed the topics: "The Trinity - Roman Catholic, Protestant and Jew;" "Who Controls the Church-Youth or Adult ?"; "Is the Church Dying a Slow Death?", and "Black and White, Hand in Hand."

Songs, refreshments, games and a message on stewardship by the Rev. James Sanko of the host church also were featured.

The next event will be an evening of Christmas caroling Dec. 11. The district moderator is Jean Serafy. Paulette Durbin is secretary, assisted by Penny Dutter.

2 Pressing Problems

Decision To Reduce Draft May Solve Army's Woes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration's decision to reduce draft calls over the next four months eventually may solve two pressing Army problems: the huge backlog of untrained reservists and the failure to reach full combat readiness among U.S.-based divisions.

Pentagon sources said Monday the Army should be able to slash the reservist backlog — 133,100 as of last June 30 — to 60,000 by next summer. The Army training bases, officials said, should be training as many as 20,000 reservists a month by early next year. Right now the Army is scheduled to train only 7,000 reservists monthly.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara announced the cutback at a news conference Saturday. He said draft calls — barring unforeseen contingencies — should average less than 25,000 through March, about half the current levels.

In past months the Army has been training more than 55,000 recruits a month but has been unable to reduce substantially the number of untrained reservists and National Guardsmen.

The large pools of untrained men have been a sharp target of congressional critics who contend the reserve program amounts to a haven for those men who otherwise would be drafted to fight in Viet Nam.

The eased draft calls, part of an over-all slowdown in the rate of troop deployment to South Viet Nam announced by McNamara Saturday, also could lead to the end of training duties for the 1st and 2nd Armored Divisions in Texas.

Despite Pentagon announcements earlier this year that all in-division training would be completed by October, officials said the two armord divisions are not expected to complete training until early spring.

Pentagon sources said the divisions — normally considered part of the U.S. Strategic Reserve for emergency duty round the world — were forced to continue training because of the lack of training facilities as the Army strained to meet its heavy Viet Nam commitments.

Swan Rubber Co. Workers Vote For Union Shop

BUCYRUS, Ohio (AP)—Production workers at the Swan Rubber Co., scene of recent labor disorders, voted overwhelmingly in favor of a union shop Monday.

The 819-167 vote favoring a closed shop was described by Don E. Tippin, president of United Rubber Workers Union Local 673, as "a satisfactory settlement in an otherwise bitter dispute."

The union and management of the Swan plants here agreed on the election last week, ending a two - week strike which was marred at times by picket line violence.

More than 1,300 employes were eligible to vote.

Negotiations continued on a new contract and the union shop issue will be included in the settlement.

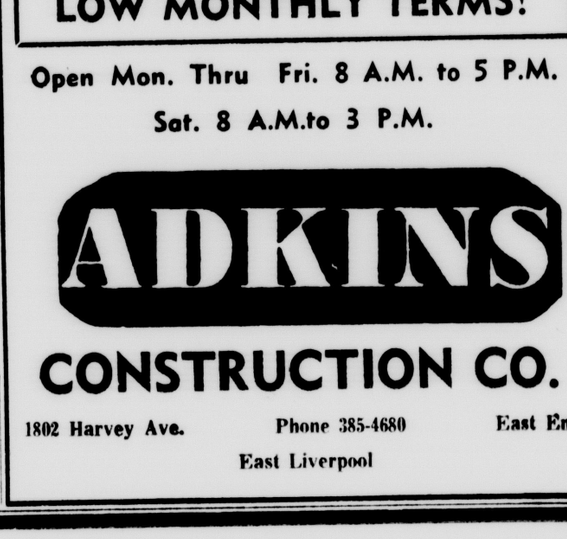

Easement OK'd In Road Program

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners Monday obtained an easement for $265.50 from Clifton M. Athey over Knox Township land needed for improvement of the Knox School Rd. in Section 22.

In other business, the commissioners bought a Clarke wet-dry vacuum cleaner from the State Chemical Co. of Cleveland for $298.05 and approved travel allowances for:

John Gruszecki, supervisor of the school for retarded children, and Mrs. Edith Martsolf of the County Welfare Department, $40 to attend a conference on retarded children today at Columbus, and Vincent C. Judge, county treasurer, and three deputies, $300 to attend the annual convention of the state association of county treasurers next Tuesday through Friday at Columbus.

S. Hurok In The Reality Hour

Less than a month away from its belated and unusual scheduled telecast time (Tuesday, Dec. 6, 9:30-11 p.m.) the CBS-TV program, "S. Hurok Presents," does not have a sponsor.

The programming of the tribute to the impressario of cultural exchanges (the Bolshoi Ballet, Marian Anderson, et al.) unprecedently pre - empts the famed CBS News reality hour as well as "Petticoat Junction."

THE SHOW was announced last spring. For awhile, it was hoped a sponsor of a number of CBS News shows might buy it. Now it probably will be offered to smaller advertisers on a participation basis.

Marian Anderson, in effect, hosts the show, which features performances by the Bolshoi company, ballerina Maya Plisteskaya, violinist Isaac Stern, pianist Van Cliburn and guitarist Andres Segovia.

The week of the Hurok program is a CBS special showcase: Frank Sinatra Dec. 7, "The Glass Menagerie" Dec. 8 and "The Nutcracker" Dec. 9.

The accent is on children the following week: "Charley Brown's Christmas" (Dec. 11), a National Geographic special (Dec. 13), "How the Grinch Stole Christmas (Dec. 18) and the Prince Street Players musical production of "Jack and the Beanstalk."

WHEN the Richard Boone Repertory Theater died of viewer and sponsor disinterest three seasons ago, its demise was lamented as the end of weekly anthology drama, once television's pride and glory.

In TV's Golden Age, the plays of Paddy Chayefsky, Horton Foote, N. Richard Nash, Reginald Rose, Rod Serling, Sumner Locke Elliott, and others went on to become plays and movies until it seemed that all show business creatively emanated from television.

There remained vestiges of anthology drama in Bob Hope's not-quite-weekly Theater, alternating with comedy hours and specials, and the six-a-year production Hall of Fame.

This is the oldest drama series on the air, continuing from the Maurice Evans "Hamlet" in 1953.

HAD THE AUDIENCE lost its appetite for dramatic stories that weren't serials or didn't have continuing characters?

So some thought at the time, among them the Goodson-Todman office which produced the Richard Boone series. The thought generally persists.

But if there's no demand for anthology drama, how account for the sudden rise of old movies on television?

Even before "The Bridge on the River Kwai" this season sent movie stock soaring and assured a sixth night of network movies come January (ABC on Wednesdays), old movies were better than ever on the newer and smaller screen of television.

And what are movies if not anthology drama?

A SURVEY of last week's New York City attractions for a discriminating drama audience turns up this TV festival of interesting fare:

"The Green Man," a British film comedy with Alastair Sim and Terry-Thomas; a double bill of Bernard Shaw one-acters; "40 Pounds of Trouble," the Tony Curtis-Suzanne Pleshette movie; "Rashomon," on "Play of the Week"; "The Canterville Ghost," a musical with an all-star cast; "Fail Safe," the Henry Fonda film about a misdirected nuclear bomber.

"Victoria Regina - Spring," a British production starring Patricia Routledge, who currently is cavorting on Broadway in "How's the World Treating You?"; the Audrey Hepburn-Gregory Peck feature, "Roman Holiday", and "The Search," with Montgomery Clift.

THE LIST comes to a minimum of two hours a night for seven nights of the week, a lot of anthology drama.

The big difference between the Golden Age and today is that the television audience is spoiled.

In old movies it is getting multimillion-dollar productions. Television budgets never have inflated that high. The contrast in production values is obvious.

The audience has become used to champagne (old movies) out of a beer glass (television). Basically this is the dilemma that television programming executives now are attempting to dehorn.

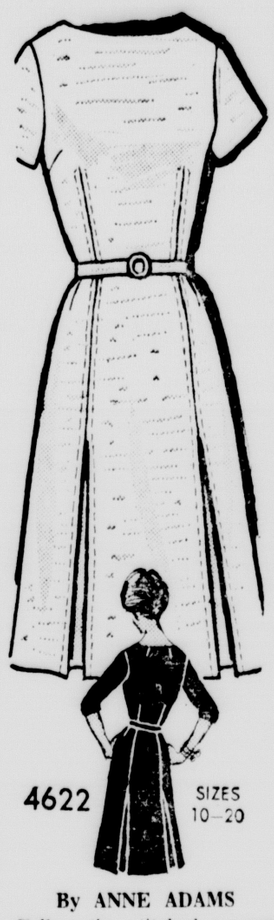

Election Takes Over

Since all networks are replacing regularly-scheduled programs with comprehensive election coverage, the television listings for tonight have been eliminated.

Only Channel 13, WQED, will follow its normal schedule.

The regular listings will be resumed Wednesday.

Screams Chase Man In Plot To Attack Woman

CINCINNATI (AP)—Screams from a 50-year-old woman Monday night chased away a possible assailant whom police speculated could have been a strangler who has terrorized the city by killing five women since last December.

The man dropped a 15-inch-long piece of rope as he fled, police Sgt. Arthur Harmon said.

Mrs. Ruby Gore, a housekeeper for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eisenhardt Jr., said she was returning home from a shopping trip when she noticed a man was following her.

She told police he approached her and said, "Hey, don't you remember me." He had a piece of rope in his hands, she said.

Mrs. Gore began screaming and several neighbors streamed from their homes. The man ran down some hillside steps.

Cincinnatians have been urged by city council to use a "buddy system" in helping their neighbors as a result of the five killings.

Sgt. Harmon said Mrs. Gore was too shaken to give a comprehensive description of the man.

For a delicious fresh fruit plate, team peaches, pears and grapes with bananas. Serve with cottage or cream cheese.

Underachiever Requires A Spark

By LESLIE J. NASON
University Southern California

Some parents, with the best of intentions, are prone to close their eyes to the problems of their underachieving child. They think, "Someone will strike the right chord and make him want to learn. He will grow up and eventually see the light."

While these seeming miracles do occur, in the majority of cases the underachiever remains so until someone sets out to bring about a better result.

Occasionally a school assignment such as a special report or the lead in a class play is the spark that sets the student on fire.

THE USUAL underachieving student needs adjustment and improvement in several areas and only a consideration of his whole pattern of thinking and learning can appraise one of the combination of changes needed to help him.

The pupil must try to learn! Otherwise he soon becomes an underachiever.

The most often repeated comment by parents and teachers in discussing underachieving students is that they seem to be satisfied with the situation as it is now and with the grades they are now making. They put forth a minimum of effort on homework.

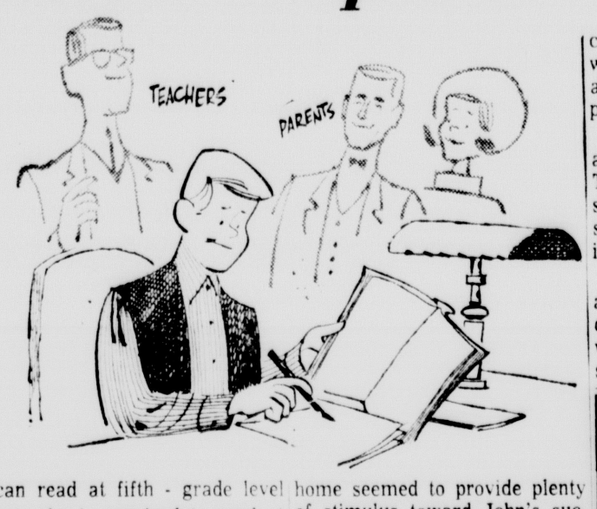

What are the "blocks" that keep students from wanting to try for more learning and how can these blocks be removed so that students are willing to do an about face and make an effort to improve their school situation?

THERE IS no single set of answers to these problems!!

One condition, especially in the primary grades, that starts a student off doing a mediocre job of learning is lack of challenge.

A second - grade pupil who can read at fifth - grade level but who is required to read at second-grade level not only lacks challenge but is rewarded for underachievement. Apparent success comes to this pupil with little effort on his part.

If the problem is found immediately, the remedy is simple — provide the missing challenge. Place him in a special group. Give him special assignments or advance him a grade. The longer the condition is allowed to persist the more difficult the solution.

John was a third - grader who showed no interest in school. His father was a commercial artist with an excellent educational background; in fact, he taught some classes in a university.

In spite of the fact that the home seemed to provide plenty of stimulus toward John's success in school he made little effort. Tests showed him to have a very high I.Q., somewhere in the neighborhood of 160.

HIS PARENTS tried tutors, a private school and, in one instance, he was advanced a grade, all to no avail.

At his father's request I discussed learning procedures with John. He showed interest in the ideas but not in putting them into practice. His statement was: "Dr. Nason, I know all the things I should be doing—I just don't do them."

There was still something lacking—with his newly - acquiring skills he had even less challenge than before. But, at this point a challenge was added — he was again advanced a grade and suddenly the miracle happened.

He began trying and soon was at the top of the advanced class. This time he was not only presented with a challenge but had scientific ideas of how to meet it.

The earlier try at promotion alone had not brought about the desired result; yet, promotion was a necessary element in the solution of John's problem.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm just one teen-ager out of millions who is sick and tired of being treated like scum whenever I go to a restaurant.

Yesterday three of us girls (all 15) decided to treat ourselves to a nice lunch. We went to a well - known eating place and just as we were seating ourselves at a table a loud voice yelled, "Sit at the counter."

The restaurant was not crowded. We had come in for lunch, not just a soft drink, so we ignored the order and stayed at the table.

When our waitress appeared she acted like she was doing us a favor by taking our order. We waited 30 minutes before our lunch arrived. The hamburgers were almost raw, the French fries were soggy and burned. We couldn't eat much but we didn't complain.

Fifteen minutes later the waitress came over and slammed the check on the table. We decided to tip her what she was worth — one cent each.

When the waitress saw the tip she grabbed my girl friend by the arm and said, "You need this more than I do," and threw the pennies in her face.

We feel the waitress was out of line and that we did nothing wrong. What is your opinion?—PERSECUTED TEENS.

Dear Teens: You girls should not have left the three pennies. If the service was as poor as you described it, no tip would have been the best way to let her know it.

The waitress was indeed out of line. To throw a tip at a customer is inexcusable, regardless of the circumstances.

Teen - agers who conduct themselves like ladies and gentlemen and are treated shabbily in restaurants and stores should take their $12 billion a year in spending money elsewhere. (You heard me, folks.)

Big Wheedler

Dear Ann: Do you think it is right for a working girl to lend money to her boy friend?

Harold is stationed in San Antonio. I live in Houston. We went steady for six months in high school and after graduation Harold went into the service and I went to work.

I live at home with my folks and pay a small amount for room and board. I have been saving money out of my salary every month and I want to continue to save for a wedding chest. Harold says he will come to visit me every weekend if I will send him the fare. He has promised to pay me back later.

Do you think this is a good idea? If so, why? If not, why not? — WILLING BUT UNCERTAIN.

Dear W but U: I think it's a miserable idea.

If you make Harold a gift of the weekends (and make no mistake about it, the dough will never be returned) you'll inevitably destroy the incentive and the pleasure of the visits.

People appreciate what they work for. That which comes easy has little value. Harold sounds like a free-loader and you'd better believe it, Honey.

Confidentially

TO LOST IN THOUGHT: After reading your letter I can understand why you are "Lost In Thought." It is unfamiliar territory. Go to the public library and learn something about drugs before you present yourself as an "expert."

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self - addressed envelope.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: With so many viruses making the rounds, it's often necessary to disinfect.

Some of the best disinfectants can be bought either in spray cans or bottled.

For anyone who doesn't mind a little extra elbow grease to save a sizeable sum, may I suggest buying the bottled type plus a pushtype spray gadget.

You get the same effect—the desired amount of disinfectant where you want it; and it goes much, much further without too much effort.

Sure saves on the budget.

MRS. M. B.

DEAR HELOISE: I've a new way to stuff celery.

First you stuff the celery, then you cut it into smaller pieces.

My mother didn't even think of that.

I'm 10 years old.

DARLENE HEIMFORTH.

Darlene, you're a dolly, and you have proven that mothers can sometimes take a lesson from their children!

I used to cut the clery in small pieces, too, before stuffing it . . . but it is much easier and neater to stuff the whole stock and then cut it.

A hug and a kiss to you for sending us your hint.

DEAR HELOISE: I walk with a cane when I go out.

In order to have both hands free when I'm using my pocket book, I have put a narrow, black velvet ribbon just below the handle of the cane, and made a loop that fits over my left arms.

Now I have both hands free when I need my purse.

HENRIETTA D. MULDER.

DEAR HELOISE: We found a way for our child to enjoy all the rattles he received as gifts.

Tied to the sides of his net playpen, they provided him with bright, colorful objects to look at and reach for.

PAT M.

DEAR HELOISE: In large families, it pays to have a different-color toothbrush for each person — always buying the same individual color as toothbrushes are replaced.

Johnny will never forget, and will always use his red one. Pat's favorite color is pink. She, too, won't pick up any but her pink toothbrush.

I should know.

GREAT GRANDMOTHER.

Grandmother, you really are great! Why not carry this idea one step further and give each child a plastic glass the same color as his toothbrush handle?

There'd be no more mix-ups along that line either!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Don't use clothespins to hang nylon hose.

MRS. C. N. C.

DEAR HELOISE: My plastic garment bag split beyond repair but I kept the metal framework, took some discarded flowered draperies, split them along the sides, and tore off the sunfaded part and out of the remaining good material, I made a big to fit the metal framework — and presto — a new, dustproof garment bag.

I had salvaged the long zipper out of an old slipcover, and used that on the bag.

Lincoln, 74, Ex-Insurance Figure, Dies

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Murray D. Lincoln, born on a New England farm, made his drive to the top in the world of big business compatible with over 50 years of work in behalf of farmers.

Monday, at age 74, the retired president of the Nationwide Insurance Companies died in a hospital here after several years of poor health.

He started in the insurance business because he thought farmers were paying too much for auto insurance. As director of the Ohio Farm Bureau he borrowed $10,000 from the organization in 1926 to start the Farm Bureau Mutual Automobile Insurance Co.

By 1948 the insurance business had grown so big that Lincoln resigned his Farm Bureau job to devote full time to it. In 1955 the company name was changed to Nationwide.

Today there are four Nationwide Insurance Companies and Nationwide is one of the nation's largest multiple-line insurance organizations. Combined assets are about $671 million.

Lincoln retired in 1964 as president of the insruance companies and most Nationwide affiliates but remained director of most of them.

He also was a director of the New York Central Railroad.

Lincoln, who claimed a distant kinship to Abraham Lincoln was a Lincolnesque 6 feet 4 inches tall. He was born on a farm near Raynham, Mass., and his home here was a farm just outside Columbus.

He is survived by his widow, Anne.

Reorganized Army

Indian Premier To Name Chavan As Police Head

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Indira Gandhi was today reported preparing to name Defense Minister Y. B. Chavan, who reorganized the Indian army after its defeat by Red China in 1962, to do a similar job on India's beleaguered police forces.

A source close to Mrs. Gandhi said Home Minister Gulzari Lal Nanda, whose ministry controls the police and investigative agencies, had offered his resignation in the wake of New Delhi's rioting Monday, worst in nearly two decades.

Nanda, India's acting prime minister after the deaths of both Jawaharlal Nehru and Lal Bahadur Shastri, was blamed for failing to prevent the bloody rampage in the capital Monday. Seven persons were killed and 500 were injured as thousands of Hindus demanding a national ban on the slaughtering of cows roamed the streets in an orgy of arson, destruction and looting.

City officials estimated the damage at more than $1 million, including the burning of 250 cars, 100 motor scooters and six municipal buses.

With mob violence growing increasingly more frequent over the country, the executive committee of the ruling Congress party's parliamentary body took the government to task and censured Nanda. One of the party's most influential politicians, Atulya Ghosh, urged a major Cabinet reshuffle.

Armed soldiers and police patrolled New Delhi streets today after the government lifted an overnight curfew but schools and markets remained closed.

Hungry India has 250 million cows, one for every two persons, but their slaughter is banned in much of the country because the cow is sacred to orthodox Hindus. Hindu extremists are demanding a total ban and threaten that one of their number will burn himself to death before the presidential palace Nov. 20 unless the ban is on the statute books by then.

Reminders Listed On Last Nonpresidential Election

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's last nonpresidential election was just four brief years ago. How well do you remember it?

Here are a few reminders:

The one thing that was considered a possible national issue—the Cuban missile crisis two weeks earlier—did not seem to have any broad effect.

In California, Republican Richard M. Nixon lost the governorship race to Gov. Edmund G. Brown and said he was bowing out of politics.

In New York, Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller topped Democrat Robert M. Morgenthau by nearly a half-million votes and leaped to the top of the heap of potential 1964 GOP presidential candidates.

George Romney won the Michigan governorship. William W. Scranton was elected Pennsylvania's governor. Robert Taft Jr. was elected to Congress in an at-large House race in Ohio. Edward M. Kennedy was elected to the Senate by a landslide in Massachusetts. Veteran Republicans who met defeat included Sens. Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin and Homer E. Capehart of Indiana, Rep. Walter H. Judd of Minnesota.

The national outcome was pretty much as expected—the Democrats lost two House seats, gained a net of three Senate seats, retained firm control of both. Democrats won 21 governorships, Republicans 14.

Hamilton Set For Predraft Exam Today

MUNICH, Germany (AP) — Actor George Hamilton worked on a movie until 4:30 a.m. today, then 3½ hours later went to the U.S. Army area command headquarters for predraft medical examinations.

Hamilton, a frequent escort of Lynda Bird Johnson, left patients at the local Army hospital agog as he walked into a private examination room wearing a sandy yellow suit.

"Wish me luck," he told newsmen but made no other comment.

Military police drove him to the hospital in a staff car after he took a mental examination at the command headquarters.

The 27-year-old movie star has been in Munich since Oct. 10 filming "Jack of Diamonds," a German-American production.

Hamilton's romance with the President's older daughter has caused much criticism of his deferment from active service on the ground that his mother is dependent on him. Last month, his New York draft board ordered him to take a physical "to get all the information possible into his record." A spokesman said at the time that even if Hamilton were found physically fit, he would not necessarily be drafted.

Upper Arlington Grabs AA Lead; Potters Jump To 11th

Steubenville 4th; Stanton 8th In A Vote

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Unbeaten Upper Arlington took over first place today in the weekly Associated Press high school poll.

The central Ohio scholastic power moved into the No. 1 spot replacing Steubenville which tumbled to fourth place after bowing to Massillon last Friday, 12-0.

The mythical state football championship will be determined after this weekend's games and will be announced Wednesday, Nov. 16.

Coach Marv Moorehead's Golden Bears, riding a 28-game winning streak that includes nine this season, assumed the leadership in the closest balloting of the season.

Steubenville, with eight straight triumphs before the Massillon collapse, had held first place five straight weeks.

Arlington polled 165 points while Niles (9-0) was second on 149 points. Hot on the trail was Sandusky (9-0) with 143 points.

Following Steubenville were Columbus Watterson (9-0); Hamilton Garfield (8-0); Dover (9-0); Columbus Eastmoor (9-0); Louisville (9-0); and Akron Hoban (8-1).

No Columbus area school has ever topped The AP poll since it was begun in 1947.

Arlington must prove its right to the No. 1 rating when it collides with unbeaten Columbus Watterson Friday night in a game that will be televised in Columbus. Watterson has a string of 22 straight that also includes a tie.

The Class A top ten saw little change with Marion Catholic continuing to hold first place. The Irish topped North Union 12-0 last weekend to climax their second straight 9-0 season.

Coach Max Ross' gridders polled 114 points, only 10 more than Millersport, which also has a 9-0 record. New Albany, 9-0, moved around Portsmouth Notre Dame to third while the Irish, 8-0, dropped to fourth.

Rounding out the elite group were Unioto, 9-0, Clear Fork, 8-0-1, Sandusky St. Mary, 9-0, Stanton Local, 8-0, Columbus Academy, 7-1, and Brookville, 7-1.

Scholastic sidelights — Steubenville Coach Abe Bryan said after his team was beaten by Massillon "I would have to say Massillon is the best team we have faced."

Tiger pilot Bob Seaman observed: "We played the same football we've been playing all along, but we didn't make the same mistakes."

It was a dark night for the Big Red, all the way. A transformer failure plunged Tiger Stadium into darkness at 6:45 p.m. and power was not restored until 7:45 p.m., delaying the game a half hour.

Piketon's Earl Willson, a senior halfback, rushed 153 yards in a 24-6 verdict over Minford and upped his season total to 1,246 yards. He gained 4,754 yards in four years of competition.

No. 6 Hamilton Garfield needs a victory Friday at Middletown to complete its first unbeaten season in history. And Hamilton Badin can finish a third straight unbeaten and untied campaign with a decision over Taylor Saturday. Coach Terry Malone has directed the Rams to 30 straight victories.

Class A Granville set a school record for defense by shutting out six foes and allowing only 26 points in nine games.

Akron East's Larry Ratcliff romped for 344 yards and five touchdowns on only 11 carries against Akron Hower last weekend. East won 32-0 as Ratcliff scored on runs of 80, 63, 46, 46 and 40 yards.

No. 2 Niles and No. 3 Sandusky wind up their season against rugged opponents. Niles engages tough Warren Harding and Sandusky battles Mansfield Senior, which tied Massillon earlier this year.

In another top attraction, No. 7 Dover faces New Philadelphia (8-1) in the 62nd renewal of their annual classic.

Earl Diddle Threw TD Pass For Potters

The 34-yard touchdown pass to Bill Carter in the fourth quarter of Friday's East Liverpool - Salem game should be credited to junior quarterback Earl Diddle and not Mike McVay as reported in Saturday's Review. Diddle was forced to elude several Salem tacklers before making the completion. McVay did score the Potters first touchdown on a plunge from the one yard line.

Gets Toronto Winger

TORONTO (AP) — The Toronto Maple Leafs have sent left-winger Britt Selby, the National Hockey League's rookie of the year last season, to Vancouver of the Western League.

Peter Kimener, an end from Arlington, Va., is captain of the Holy Cross football team.

Torn Knee Ligament

Cardinals' Quarterback Out For Rest Of Season

ST. LOUIS (AP) — St. Louis Coach Charley Winner is doing a quick repair job on his National Football League Eastern Division leaders because, he says, injuries have knocked out "the hub of our offense."

Center Bob DeMarco, who played in the NFL's 1965 Pro Bowl, will be sidelined for at least four weeks with a partially torn right knee ligament.

"It can't help but hurt when you lose the two men who put the ball in play for you," said Winner. "But we will be working this week to remedy the situation before the game next Sunday with the Steelers at Pittsburgh."

Johnson and DeMarco were hurt in the 20-17 St. Louis victory Sunday over the Giants in New York.

Irv Goode, a regular offensive guard who usually centers on extra points and field goal attempts, came in for DeMarco.

Second string quarterback Terry Nofsinger entered the game after Johnson's injury and quickly threw a scoring strike to Prentice Gautt.

"I think Terry will be able to do the job for us and Goode always plays well no matter where he is," said Winner.

Nofsinger is the only quarterback on the roster now. But Jim Bakken, the field goal and extra point specialist, played there while in college.

Nicklaus Fires 3-Under 68 In Canada Cup Golf Warmup

TOKYO (AP)—Jack Nicklaus of Columbus, Ohio fired a three-under-par 68—including a sensational five-under-par 30 on the par-35 front line—at the Sagami Country Club today playing in an exhibition warmup for the Canada Cup International Golf Tournament.

His performance against South African Gary Player and Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., was something of a warning to other Canada Cup competitors who were practicing at the nearby Yomiuri Country Club while the threesome was being played at Sagami.

The Canada Cup — the 14th edition of this major world tournament — will be played at Yomiuri Nov. 10-13.

Player had a 35-35—70, and Palmer a 36-39—75. Both will have only one day of practice at the 6,962-yard, par-72 Yomiuri layout before competition begins.

Seventy-two golfers from 36 countries are entered. Nicklaus and Palmer will represent the United States in the team competition.

Nicklaus, Palmer and Player said they would use the small ball (1.62 inches in diameter) for the Canada Cup "because it's easier to use."

"We'd prefer to use the large ball (1.68 inches in diameter) but since most everyone will be using the small ball, we'd be giving away too much by using the large," Nicklaus explained.

Tournament officials say the Tokyo Yomiuri course is the hilliest on which the Canada Cup has been played, with the advantage in favor of straight power hitters.

Sagami is a flat, wooded course.

Louisiana Vote Will Decide On Domed Stadium

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The National Football League finds out tonight if its baby member will get to play in a domed stadium.

Louisiana voters today balloted on an amendment which would permit construction of an air-conditioned, enclosed stadium in the greater New Orleans area.

The franchise was awarded to New Orleans a week ago. The team will begin play next August in the NFL and use Tulane's Sugar Bowl Stadium, which seats 82,500, as an interim facility for three years.

The proposed Supredome would cost an estimated $30 million and seat 60,000 fans.

The amendment would establish a commission with the power to levy a 5½ per cent occupancy tax on hotel and motel rooms in New Orleans and suburban Jefferson and to back bonds issued for stadium construction.

Heads For Belgium

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israel's national basketball team leaves today for Antwerp, Belgium, where it will compete in the European championships before visiting the United States and continuing to Bangkok, Thailand, for next month's Asian Games.

Nebraska 4th As UCLA Drops To 8th

Notre Dame Holds College Lead; Michigan State 2nd; 'Bama Third

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The latest election day in the Associated Press' major-college football poll still finds Notre Dame holding a relatively small lead over Michigan State while Alabama is an onrushing third.

Alabama, the national titleholder in 1964 and 1965, was among five teams to gain ground in the latest poll based on games through last Saturday. The Tide replaced UCLA in the No. 3 spot while Nebraska advanced to fourth, Arkansas to sixth, Southern California to seventh and Georgia to ninth.

The Bulldogs, 27-10 victors over Florida, replaced the Gators in the first 10. UCLA tumbled to eighth while Georgia Tech held fifth place and Tennessee 10th.

Notre Dame and Michigan State face each other on the Spartans' field on Nov. 19.

The Irish collected 32 first-place votes to the Spartans' 10 in the most recent balloting by a national panel of 43 sports writers and broadcasters. However, on a basis of 10 points for a first-place vote, 9 for second etc., Notre Dame leads by a mere 25 points, 418 to 393.

Notre Dame trounced Pittsburgh 40-0 and Michigan State overwhelmed Iowa 56-7 last Saturday.

Alabama accumulated 333 points after blanking Louisiana State 21-0. Nebraska, Arkansas and Southern California each advanced two places.

The Cornhuskers beat Kansas 24-13. Arkansas whipped Rice 31-20 and USC downed California 35-9. Georgia Tech just managed to get past Virginia, 14-13.

UCLA, upset by Washington 163, slipped five notches. Tennessee whipped Chattanooga, 28-10. The Volunteers trail ninth-place Georgia by only three points in the voting.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, and total points:

1.	Notre Dame (32)	418
2.	Michigan St. (10)	393
3.	Alabama	323
4.	Nebraska	271
5.	Georgia Tech	230
6.	Arkansas (1)	188
7.	Southern Cal	144
8.	UCLA	142
9.	Georgia	71
10.	Tennessee	68

U.S. Chances In Davis Cup Are Smashed

PORTO ALEGRE, Brazil (AP)—America's hopes for regaining the Davis Cup this year are ended, shattered by a stocky 25-year-old Brazilian tennis star who beat top-ranked Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., in a showdown match Monday.

Fans carried Jose Adison Mandarino around the court on their shoulders after his five-set victory over Ralston had climaxed a great comeback and given Brazil a 3-2 victory over the United States in the Inter-Zone Davis Cup semifinal.

It was Mandarino who defeated 19-year-old Cliff Richey of Dallas in the opening singles match, giving Brazil a glimmer of hope against the highly-favored American team.

But Ralston brought the Americans even when he whipped Thomas Koch and then teamed with Arthur Ashe of Richmond, Va., in Sunday's doubles victory.

That gave the Americans a 2-1 lead and put Brazil in a deep hole. A victory by either Richey or Ralston in Monday's final two singles matches would have clinched the semifinal series for the United States.

But Koch, who had been destroyed by Ralston in the opening singles, suddenly bounced back against Richey and whipped the tense teen-ager in straight sets, 6-1, 7-5, 6-1.

Ralston won the first and third sets 6-4, 6-4 but dropped the second, 4-6. He seemed to tire in the fourth set, losing it 4-6 and finally dropped the fifth set, 1-6.

WVU's Mallory Voted Defensive Honors In Loop

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Southern Conference defensive honors of the week went Monday to West Virginia's John Mallory for his stellar job in the Mountaineers' 35-0 rout of The Citadel last Saturday.

Mallory, a defensive back, scored two touchdowns — one on an 88-yard punt return which The Citadel coach Red Parker called the turning point of the game.

With WVU leading only 7-0 midway the third period, Mallory, a 20-year-old junior from Summit, N.J., turned the game into a rout by returning a kick from his 12 for West Virginia's second score.

Later, in the fourth period, Mallory intercepted a pass on The Citadel's 35 and ran it back for his second TD of the afternoon.

WVU coach Jim Carlen calls Mallory "one of the best defensive backs in the country," and adds: "He's been a standout all season and is always a threat as a punt returner or interceptor."

Richmond end Bruce Soderstrom, a 6-3 junior from Eastville, Va., was runner-up to Mallory for defensive honors. Soderstrom made several key tackles in the Spiders' 24-14 conquest of Furman.

Cincinnati Scheduled For 10th AFL Spot

NEW YORK (AP)—With New Orleans in as the National Football League's 16th franchise, Cincinnati is expected to be named shortly as the American Football League's 10th franchise.

One of the big items in Cincinnati's favor is a television market three times as large as Seattle, the other site that has been inspected.

Although the population of the two cities is virtually the same, the Cincinnati area shows 1,909,000 television sets to 658,900 for Seattle.

Following Pittsburgh Disaster

Browns Need Help Now In Hopes For NFL Title

CLEVELAND (AP) — Before the disaster in Pittsburgh, the Cleveland Browns were saying "we can still win it alone," meaning they could still take the National Football League Eastern Division even after two losses.

Well, the Browns can't do it alone any more. They need help.

They have to win six straight games. But somebody else also has to beat the St. Louis Cardinals, who have a 7-1-1 record and lead the East. Dallas is the best bet.

The Cowboys are second with a 5-2-1 record and the Browns are third, 5-3.

The Cardinals squeezed by New York Sunday but the victory cost them quarterback Charley Johnson, who suffered a torn ligament in the right knee and will be out for the season. This happened to the Cards last year, who won four straight before Johnson injured his shoulder and never returned.

The Browns, who dropped a 16-6 decision to Pittsburgh Sunday, have six games left and host the Philadelphia Eagles Sunday. After that it's Washington, Dallas (on Thanksgiving Day), New York, Philadelphia and St. Louis.

The Cardinals, meanwhile, have two games with Piltsbugh one with Atlanta and have to face the Cowboys and Browns one more time. Dallas' schedule includes Pittsburgh, Cleveland, St. Louis, Washington and New York.

It boils down to the fact the three top teams meet each other one more time, but the rest of the schedule favored the Cardinals--Pittsburgh (2-5-1) and Atlanta (0-8).

There are some interesting "ifs" on the schedule:

—If the Steelers can get up for St. Louis like they did against the Browns.

—If Dallas can beat St. Louis.

—If the Browns can take both Dallas and St. Louis, plus their other opponents.

That's all positive thinking. There's another if. Should the Browns lose another game their chances will get very slim.

If they didn't realize it before the Pittsburgh game, they certainly do now.

Neely's Days With Cowboys Grow Short

DALLAS (AP) — Ralph Neely's playing days for the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League were dwindling today.

The giant offensive tackle's request that the U.S. Supreme Court reconsider its refusal to review a lower court ruling to against him was denied in Washington Monday.

Apparently his last chance to avoid going to the Houston Oilers of the American Football League, for whom he has said he would not play, rested with a state court here.

Dist. Judge Owen Giles has set a hearing Thursday on a Dallas club request for an injunction against Neely. The suit would prevent Neely from playing with any club except Dallas, whereas the Houston action, in federal court at Oklahoma City, would bar him from competing with any team except the Oilers.

Neely signed a contract late in 1964 to play with Houston and in January of 1965 he signed one with Dallas. He has played with Dallas ever since. He has contended the Houston contract was not enforceable.

Barry Widens Lead In NBA Point Race

NEW YORK (AP) — Rick Barry of San Francisco, firing at a 40-point clip in five games last week, has widened his individual scoring lead in the National Basketball Association.

The 6-foot-7 Warriors forward scored 43 points against Baltimore last Sunday, bringing his total for the week to 181. He has averaged just under 38 points per-game in 12 starts over-all and holds a 169-point bulge over runner-up Guy Rodgers of Chicago, who has played two more games.

The Warriors' Nate Thurmond and Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain are first and second, respectively, in rebounds.

Notre Dame's Exciting End Always Reached For Things

BERKLEY, Mich. (AP) — Jim Seymour, Notre Dame's talented sophomore end, has been reaching for things ever since his fingers were long enough to hold on.

"We were always finding him on top of the refrigerator or someplace," recalls his mother, Mrs. Bart Seymour.

The Seymours, including four other sons and a daughter, live in a comfortable home in this Detroit suburb.

Seymour, a 6-foot-4, 190-pounder, has combined with sophomore quarterback Terry Hanratty to become one of the most exciting fighting Irish passing combinations in Notre Dame history.

Seymour has been sidelined since he suffered a sprained ankle in No. 1 ranked Notre Dame's 38-0 victory over Oklahoma Oct. 22.

Up to that point, he had caught 34 passes for 675 yards and five touchdowns.

But back home in Berkley, Jim is just a boy who strums a guitar, bakes cookies and plays with the neighborhood children.

"One of my brothers once told me he didn't think any of our boys would make very good football players because they were too gentle," says Mrs. Seymour.

Mrs. Seymour described Jim as an average student who works hard.

"He was an active boy even as a baby," she recalled. "Always stretching and reaching for things. His left arm is scarred from where he once pulled a pan of boiling water off the stove."

Notre Dame Coach Ara Parseghian has said Seymour's sprained ankle isn't serious. But he has kept him on the sidelines, probably saving him for a Nov. 19 clash with No. 2 ranked Michigan State at East Lansing, Mich.

Upper Arlington Grabs AA Lead; Potters Jump To 11th

Steubenville 4th; Stanton 8th In A Vote

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Unbeaten Upper Arlington took over first place today in the weekly Associated Press high school poll.

The central Ohio scholastic power moved into the No. 1 spot replacing Steubenville which tumbled to fourth place after bowing to Massillon last Friday, 12-0.

The mythical state football championship will be determined after this weekend's games and will be announced Wednesday, Nov. 16.

Coach Marv Moorehead's Golden Bears, riding a 28-game winning streak that includes nine this season, assumed the leadership in the closest balloting of the season.

Steubenville, with eight straight triumphs before the Massillon collapse, had held first place five straight weeks.

Arlington polled 165 points while Niles (9-0) was second on 149 points. Hot on the trail was Sandusky (9-0) with 143 points.

Following Steubenville were Columbus Watterson (9-0); Hamilton Garfield (8-0); Dover (9-0); Columbus Eastmoor (9-0); Louisville (9-0); and Akron Hoban (8-1).

No Columbus area school has ever topped The AP poll since it was begun in 1947.

Arlington must prove its right to the No. 1 rating when it collides with unbeaten Columbus Watterson Friday night in a game that will be televised in Columbus. Watterson has a string of 22 straight that also includes a tie.

The Class A top ten saw little change with Marion Catholic continuing to hold first place. The Irish topped North Union 12-0 last weekend to climax their second straight 9-0 season.

Coach Max Ross' gridders polled 114 points, only 10 more than Millersport, which also has a 9-0 record. New Albany, 9-0, moved around Portsmouth Notre Dame to third while the Irish, 8-0, dropped to fourth.

Rounding out the elite group were Unioto, 9-0, Clear Fork, 8-0-1, Sandusky St. Mary, 9-0, Stanton Local, 8-0, Columbus Academy, 7-1, and Brookville, 7-1.

Scholastic sidelights — Steubenville Coach Abe Bryan said after his team was beaten by Massillon "I would have to say Massillon is the best team we have faced."

Tiger pilot Bob Seaman observed: "We played the same football we've been playing all along, but we didn't make the same mistakes."

It was a dark night for the Big Red, all the way. A transformer failure plunged Tiger Stadium into darkness at 6:45 p.m. and power was not restored until 7:45 p.m., delaying the game a half hour.

Piketon's Earl Willson, a senior halfback, rushed 153 yards in a 24-6 verdict over Minford and upped his season total to 1,246 yards. He gained 4,754 yards in four years of competition.

No. 6 Hamilton Garfield needs a victory Friday at Middletown to complete its first unbeaten season in history. And Hamilton Badin can finish a third straight unbeaten and untied campaign with a decision over Taylor Saturday. Coach Terry Malone has directed the Rams to 30 straight victories.

Class A Granville set a school record for defense by shutting out six foes and allowing only 26 points in nine games.

Akron East's Larry Ratcliff romped for 344 yards and five touchdowns on only 11 carries against Akron Hower last weekend. East won 32-0 as Ratcliff scored on runs of 80, 63, 46, 46 and 40 yards.

No. 2 Niles and No. 3 Sandusky wind up their season against rugged opponents. Niles engages tough Warren Harding and Sandusky battles Mansfield Senior, which tied Massillon earlier this year.

In another top attraction, No. 7 Dover faces New Philadelphia (8-1) in the 62nd renewal of their annual classic.

Earl Diddle Threw TD Pass For Potters

The 34-yard touchdown pass to Bill Carter in the fourth quarter of Friday's East Liverpool - Salem game should be credited to junior quarterback Earl Diddle and not Mike McVay as reported in Saturday's Review. Diddle was forced to elude several Salem tacklers before making the completion. McVay did score the Potters first touchdown on a plunge from the one yard line.

Peter Kimener, an end from Arlington, Va., is captain of the Holy Cross football team.

Cardinals' Quarterback Out For Rest Of Season

ST. LOUIS (AP) — St. Louis Coach Charley Winner is doing a quick repair job on his National Football League Eastern Division leaders because, he says, injuries have knocked out "the hub of our offense."

Quarterback Charley Johnson, who holds four career team passing records, is lost for the season with a torn right knee ligament. He undergoes knee surgery today.

Center Bob DeMarco, who played in the NFL's 1965 Pro Bowl, will be sidelined for at least four weeks with a partially torn right knee ligament.

"It can't help but hurt when you lose the two men who put the ball in play for you," said Winner. "But we will be working this week to remedy the situation before the game next Sunday with the Steelers at Pittsburgh."

Johnson and DeMarco were hurt in the 20-17 St. Louis victory Sunday over the Giants in New York.

Irv Goode, a regular offensive guard who usually centers on extra points and field goal attempts, came in for DeMarco.

Second string quarterback Terry Nofsinger entered the game after Johnson's injury and quickly threw a scoring strike to Prentice Gautt.

"I think Terry will be able to do the job for us and Goode always plays well no matter where he is," said Winner.

Nofsinger is the only quarterback on the roster now. But Jim Bakken, the field goal and extra point specialist, played there while in college.

Nicklaus Fires 3-Under 68 In Canada Cup Golf Warmup

TOKYO (AP)—Jack Nicklaus of Columbus, Ohio fired a three-under-par 68—including a sensational five-under-par 30 on the par-35 front line—at the Sagami Country Club today playing in an exhibition warmup for the Canada Cup International Golf Tournament.

His performance against South African Gary Player and Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., was something of a warning to other Canada Cup competitors who were practicing at the nearby Yomiuri Country Club while the threesome was being played at Sagami.

The Canada Cup — the 14th edition of this major world tournament — will be played at Yomiuri Nov. 10-13.

Player had a 35-35—70, and Palmer a 36-39—75. Both will have only one day of practice at the 6,962-yard, par-72 Yomiuri layout before competition begins.

Seventy-two golfers from 36 countries are entered. Nicklaus and Palmer will represent the United States in the team competition.

Nicklaus, Palmer and Player said they would use the small ball (1.62 inches in diameter) for the Canada Cup "because it's easier to use."

"We'd prefer to use the large ball (1.68 inches in diameter) but since most everyone will be using the small ball, we'd be giving away too much by using the large," Nicklaus explained.

Tournament officials say the Tokyo Yomiuri course is the hilliest on which the Canada Cup has been played, with the advantage in favor of straight power hitters.

Sagami is a flat, wooded course.

Louisiana Vote Will Decide On Domed Stadium

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The National Football League finds out tonight if its baby member will get to play in a domed stadium.

Louisiana voters today balloted on an amendment which would permit construction of an air-conditioned, enclosed stadium in the greater New Orleans area.

The franchise was awarded to New Orleans a week ago. The team will begin play next August in the NFL and use Tulane's Sugar Bowl Stadium, which seats 82,500, as an interim facility for three years.

The proposed Supredome would cost an estimated $30 million and seat 60,000 fans.

The amendment would establish a commission with the power to levy a 5½ per cent occupancy tax on hotel and motel rooms in New Orleans and suburban Jefferson and to back bonds issued for stadium construction.

Nebraska 4th As UCLA Drops To 8th

Notre Dame Holds College Lead; Michigan State 2nd; 'Bama Third

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The latest election day in the Associated Press' major-college football poll still finds Notre Dame holding a relatively small lead over Michigan State while Alabama is an onrushing third.

Alabama, the national titleholder in 1964 and 1965, was among five teams to gain ground in the latest poll based on games through last Saturday. The Tide replaced UCLA in the No. 3 spot while Nebraska advanced to fourth, Arkansas to sixth, Southern California to seventh and Georgia to ninth.

The Bulldogs, 27-10 victors over Florida, replaced the Gators in the first 10. UCLA tumbled to eighth while Georgia Tech held fifth place and Tennessee 10th.

Notre Dame and Michigan State face each other on the Spartans' field on Nov. 19.

The Irish collected 32 first-place votes to the Spartans' 10 in the most recent balloting by a national panel of 42 sports writers and broadcasters. However, on a basis of 10 points for a first-place vote, 9 for second etc., Notre Dame leads by a mere 25 points, 418 to 393.

Notre Dame trounced Pittsburgh 40-0 and Michigan State overwhelmed Iowa 56-7 last Saturday.

Alabama accumulated 333 points after blanking Louisiana State 21-0. Nebraska, Arkansas and Southern California each advanced two places.

The Cornhuskers beat Kansas 24-13. Arkansas whipped Rice 31-20 and USC downed California 35-9. Georgia Tech just managed to get past Virginia, 14-13.

UCLA, upset by Washington 163, slipped five notches. Tennessee whipped Chattanooga, 28-10. The Volunteers trail ninth-place Georgia by only three points in the voting.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, and total points:

1.	Notre Dame (32)	418
2.	Michigan St. (10)	393
3.	Alabama	323
4.	Nebraska	271
5.	Georgia Tech	230
6.	Arkansas (1)	188
7.	Southern Cal	144
8.	UCLA	142
9.	Georgia	71
10.	Tennessee	68

U.S. Chances In Davis Cup Are Smashed

PORTO ALEGRE, Brazil (AP)—America's hopes for regaining the Davis Cup this year are ended, shattered by a stocky 25-year-old Brazilian tennis star who beat top-ranked Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., in a showdown match Monday.

Fans carried Jose Adison Mandarino around the court on their shoulders after his five-set victory over Ralston had climaxed a great comeback and given Brazil a 3-2 victory over the United States in the Inter-Zone Davis Cup semifinal.

It was Mandarino who defeated 19-year-old Cliff Richey of Dallas in the opening singles match, giving Brazil a glimmer of hope against the highly-favored American team.

But Ralston brought the Americans even when he whipped Thomas Koch and then teamed with Arthur Ashe of Richmond, Va., in Sunday's doubles victory.

That gave the Americans a 2-1 lead and put Brazil in a deep hole. A victory by either Richey or Ralston in Monday's final two singles matches would have clinched the semifinal series for the United States.

But Koch, who had been destroyed by Ralston in the opening singles, suddenly bounced back against Richey and whipped the tense teen-ager in straight sets, 6-1, 7-5, 6-1.

Ralston won the first and third sets 6-4, 6-4 but dropped the second, 4-6. He seemed to tire in the fourth set, losing it 4-6 and finally dropped the fifth set, 1-6.

WVU's Mallory Voted Defensive Honors In Loop

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Southern Conference defensive honors of the week went Monday to West Virginia's John Mallory for his stellar job in the Mountaineers' 35-0 rout of The Citadel last Saturday.

Mallory, a defensive back, scored two touchdowns — one on an 88-yard punt return which The Citadel coach Red Parker called the turning point of the game.

With WVU leading only 7-0 midway the third period, Mallory, a 20-year-old junior from Summit, N.J., turned the game into a rout by returning a kick from his 12 for West Virginia's second score.

Later, in the fourth period, Mallory intercepted a pass on The Citadel's 35 and ran it back for his second TD of the afternoon.

WVU coach Jim Carlen calls Mallory "one of the best defensive backs in the country," and adds: "He's been a standout all season and is always a threat as a punt returner or interceptor."

Richmond end Bruce Soderstrom, a 6-3 junior from Eastville, Va., was runner-up to Mallory for defensive honors. Soderstrom made several key tackles in the Spiders' 24-14 conquest of Furman.

Cincinnati Scheduled For 10th AFL Spot

NEW YORK (AP)—With New Orleans in as the National Football League's 16th franchise, Cincinnati is expected to be named shortly as the American Football League's 10th franchise.

One of the big items in Cincinnati's favor is a television market three times as large as Seattle, the other site that has been inspected.

Although the population of the two cities is virtually the same, the Cincinnati area shows 1,909,000 television sets to 658,900 for Seattle.

Following Pittsburgh Disaster

Browns Need Help Now In Hopes For NFL Title

CLEVELAND (AP) — Before the disaster in Pittsburgh, the Cleveland Browns were saying "we can still win it alone," meaning they could still take the National Football League Eastern Division even after two losses.

Well, the Browns can't do it alone any more. They need help.

They have to win six straight games. But somebody else also has to beat the St. Louis Cardinals, who have a 7-1-1 record and lead the East. Dallas is the best bet.

The Cowboys are second with a 5-2-1 record and the Browns are third, 5-3.

The Cardinals squeezed by New York Sunday but the victory cost them quarterback Charley Johnson, who suffered a torn ligament in the right knee and will be out for the season. This happened to the Cards last year, who won four straight before Johnson injured his shoulder and never returned.

The Browns, who dropped a 16-6 decision to Pittsburgh Sunday, have six games left and host the Philadelphia Eagles Sunday. After that it's Washington, Dallas (on Thanksgiving Day), New York, Philadelphia and St. Louis.

The Cardinals, meanwhile, have two games with Piltsbugh one with Atlanta and have to face the Cowboys and Browns one more time. Dallas' schedule includes Pittsburgh, Cleveland, St. Louis, Washington and New York.

It boils down to the fact the three top teams meet each other one more time, but the rest of the schedule favored the Cardinals--Pittsburgh (2-5-1) and Atlanta (0-8).

There are some interesting "ifs" on the schedule:

—If the Steelers can get up for St. Louis like they did against the Browns.

—If Dallas can beat St. Louis.

—If the Browns can take both Dallas and St. Louis, plus their other opponents.

That's all positive thinking. There's another if. Should the Browns lose another game their chances will get very slim.

If they didn't realize it before the Pittsburgh game, they certainly do now.

Neely's Days With Cowboys Grow Short

DALLAS (AP) — Ralph Neely's playing days for the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League were dwindling today.

The giant offensive tackle's request that the U.S. Supreme Court reconsider its refusal to review a lower court ruling to against him was denied in Washington Monday.

Apparently his last chance to avoid going to the Houston Oilers of the American Football League, for whom he has said he would not play, rested with a state court here.

Dist. Judge Owen Giles has set a hearing Thursday on a Dallas club request for an injunction against Neely. The suit would prevent Neely from playing with any club except Dallas, whereas the Houston action, in federal court at Oklahoma City, would bar him from competing with any team except the Oilers.

Neely signed a contract late in 1964 to play with Houston and in January of 1965 he signed one with Dallas. He has played with Dallas ever since. He has contended the Houston contract was not enforceable.

Palmer Says Long Courses 'Ridiculous'

NEW YORK (AP) — Arnold Palmer, one of the game's longest hitters, says extremely long courses are ridiculous.

"A golf course should have versatility," the millionaire professional from Latrobe, Pa., added in a critique on golf course architecture.

Writing in Golf Magazine, Palmer said that architects are making courses increasingly difficult, worrying more about a pro or a good club player tearing them up than considering the average golfer.

"I notice we have slipped away from the interesting short par three holes on which you have to play precision iron shots to get the ball on the green and close to the in," he said. "Many of today's architects have gone to the long, drab par threes that force the average player to use his woods every time."

The all-time leading money winner in golf said another private peeve was water hazards that are so tough that they lack character.

"In certain instances, you are not rewarded for a good shot there because the ball does not stay on the green," he said.

Hull, Mikita Have Rough Hockey Week

NEW YORK (AP) — It's been a rough week for Bobby Hull and Stan Mikita, Chicago's 1-2 punch in the National Hockey League.

Hull, the NHL scoring king last season, was blanked in two games last week while Mikita, the 1964-65 champion, lost his individual point lead to Norm Ullman of Detroit.

Ullman picked up a goal and two assists in three starts, boosting his early-season point total to 14. Mikita scored one goal and dropped into second place with 12 points.

Hull, with seven points in all, slipped behind his younger brother, Dennis, and into a six-way tie for 10th place. Dennis Hull is tied with Detroit's Floyd Smith for the No. 6 spot at nine points apiece.

Patton Picked Top Lineman Of The Week

George Patton wasn't driving a tank in Florida's backfield last Saturday but you'll never convince Gator quarterback Steve Spurrier of that.

Patton is the Georgia tackle who led the charge on Spurrier and sparked the Bulldogs' defensive unit in Georgia's 27-10 victory. He was named The Associated Press' Lineman of the Week for his job.

An All America choice as a junior last year, Patton was named after the World War II tank commander.

Patton, a soft-spoken giant from Tuscumbia, Ala., is popular with his teammates and his easy going, country boy manner led to the Tom Sawyer nickname.

Coach Vince Dooley said the Georgia pass rush, which was led by Patton, was the key to the Bulldogs' big Southeastern Conference victory over Spurrier and Florida.

Buffalo Leads Division, Not In Statistics

NEW YORK (AP) — The Buffalo Bills, two-time champions of the American Football League, are back in first place in the Eastern Division, and as usual they're proving that you can win without putting on a statistical show.

The Bills do not lead the AFL in any of the six team offensive and defensive departments.

The Bills are third in total offense, third in rushing and sixth in passing. Defensively, they are fourth over-all, seventh in passing and second in rushing.

Kansas City's Western Division leaders are No. 1 in total offense with a pickup of 357.4 a game and first in rushing offense with a 159.0 average while New York is tops in passing offense with 238.8 yards a game.

Defensively, Oakland is No. 1 over-all, allowing only 259.4 a game and first in passing with a 133.9 a game mark. Boston is tops against rushing, permitting only 72.0 a game.

Girl, 7, Reported Abducted Sought In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A force of city policemen went from house to house in the city's Kensington section today searching for a 7-year-old girl reportedly abducted by a man in an auto.

The girl, Guillermina Zayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guillermo Zayes, disappeared Sunday. Monday her sister, Madalia, 8, tearfully sobbed out that she had last seen her sister get into an auto with a man.

Earlier Madalia had told her parents and the police her sister just walked away.

But detective William Britt said Monday Madalia told them that while she and her sister were playing, a man drove up and asked where their father was.

"At home," Madalia said she told him.

He then motioned to the younger girl to get into the car and said, "show me where your father is." They drove away.

Madalia told policemen she didn't think about it because they were playing just around the corner from their house. She went home later, but her sister was not there.

The girl gave police a description of the man and of his auto.

The Zayeses live at 2654 North Third.

Candidate's Hoping No One Votes For Him

BERLIN, N.H. (AP) — Robert Dumont, unlike thousands of political candidates awaiting the results of today's voting, hopes nobody will vote for him.

Dumont is Republican candidate for supervisor of checklists, a minor city office responsible for keeping records. He recently accepted a teaching job with New Hampshire Vocational Institute. As a state employe he can't run for public office, but he couldn't get his name off the ballot.

So on election eve, Dumont issued the plea "don't elect me."

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Orange Bowl Committee will have scouts watching five schools this weekend, undefeated Alabama, Nebraska and Georgia Tech and once-beaten Florida and Georgia.

Orange Bowl President John Ring indicated that the Orange Bowl would offer its bids on Nov. 21, the first date authorized by the NCAA.

Artificial Heart Patient Claimed

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Artificial heart pump patient Charles Victorien Maboge, 38, died early today at Methodist Hospital 11 days after undergoing surgery.

A statement issued by the hospital said the warehouse worker from Rochefort, Belgium, died of liver and kidney failure. The statement said the malfunctioning of the kidneys and liver was the result of a prolonged serious heart condition he had suffered before undergoing the operation.

The Belgian has been in critical condition since Sunday.

Maboge received the pump Oct. 28, plus three plastic heart valves as replacements for his own diseased valves. He had been conscious and listed in satisfactory condition until a crisis developed early Saturday.

Palmer Says Long Courses 'Ridiculous'

NEW YORK (AP) — Arnold Palmer, one of the game's longest hitters, says extremely long courses are ridiculous.

"A golf course should have versatility," the millionaire professional from Latrobe, Pa., added in a critique on golf course architecture.

Writing in Golf Magazine, Palmer said that architects are making courses increasingly difficult, worrying more about a pro or a good club player tearing them up than considering the average golfer.

"I notice we have slipped away from the interesting short par three holes on which you have to play precision iron shots to get the ball on the green and close to the in," he said. "Many of today's architects have gone to the long, drab par threes that force the average player to use his woods every time."

The all-time leading money winner in golf said another private peeve was water hazards that are so tough that they lack character.

"In certain instances, you are not rewarded for a good shot there because the ball does not stay on the green," he said.

A. F. "Nick" Thomas, prominent horseman for the last 40 years, died Monday at his home in Monongahela, Pa., of a heart attack.

Thomas, who raced as many as 25 horses in a public stable at Wheeling and Waterford Park for many years, was one of the leading trainers in the area.

He retired from active training during the past three years and confined his work to the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association as district representative for the local area.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 10:30 a. m. at Monongahela.

Mr. Thomas was a member of the Knights of Columbus and is survived by his widow, Gertrude, two sons, Kenneth and William, a daughter, Merle, and several grandchildren.

Hull, Mikita Have Rough Hockey Week

NEW YORK (AP) — It's been a rough week for Bobby Hull and Stan Mikita, Chicago's 1-2 punch in the National Hockey League.

Hull, the NHL scoring king last season, was blanked in two games last week while Mikita, the 1964-65 champion, lost his individual point lead to Norm Ullman of Detroit.

Ullman picked up a goal and two assists in three starts, boosting his early-season point total to 14. Mikita scored one goal and dropped into second place with 12 points.

Hull, with seven points in all, slipped behind his younger brother, Dennis, and into a six-way tie for 10th place. Dennis Hull is tied with Detroit's Floyd Smith for the No. 6 spot at nine points apiece.

Patton Picked Top Lineman Of The Week

George Patton wasn't driving a tank in Florida's backfield last Saturday but you'll never convince Gator quarterback Steve Spurrier of that.

Patton is the Georgia tackle who led the charge on Spurrier and sparked the Bulldogs' defensive unit in Georgia's 27-10 victory. He was named The Associated Press' Lineman of the Week for his job.

A solid 215-pound senior, Patton is variously known as The General and Tom Sawyer by his teammates. He was just plain poison to Spurrier, one of the country's leading quarterbacks.

An All America choice as a junior last year, Patton was named after the World War II tank commander.

Patton, a soft-spoken giant from Tuscumbia, Ala., is popular with his teammates and his easy going, country boy manner led to the Tom Sawyer nickname.

Coach Vince Dooley said the Georgia pass rush, which was led by Patton, was the key to the Bulldogs' big Southeastern Conference victory over Spurrier and Florida.

Buffalo Leads Division, Not In Statistics

NEW YORK (AP) — The Buffalo Bills, two-time champions of the American Football League, are back in first place in the Eastern Division, and as usual they're proving that you can win without putting on a statistical show.

The Bills do not lead the AFL in any of the six team offensive and defensive departments.

The Bills are third in total offense, third in rushing and sixth in passing. Defensively, they are fourth over-all, seventh in passing and second in rushing.

Kansas City's Western Division leaders are No. 1 in total offense with a pickup of 357.4 a game and first in rushing offense with a 159.0 average while New York is tops in passing offense with 238.8 yards a game.

Defensively, Oakland is No. 1 over-all, allowing only 259.4 a game and first in passing with a 133.9 a game mark. Boston is tops against rushing, permitting only 72.0 a game.

Moore Reports Campaign Costs And Donations

WASHINGTON (AP) — More campaign donations and costs have been reported to the Clerk of the House for candidates for House of Representative seats in West Virginia.

Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr., R-W.Va., reported campaign expenditures of $5,071 and contributions of $3,358 in a preliminary report to the clerk.

Mal Guthrie, Republican candidate in West Virginia's 3rd District against Rep. John Slack Jr., D-W.Va., reported $2,586 in campaign contributions and payment of a $300 filing fee.

Slack has reported $9,230 in contributions, $822 in itemized expenditures and $4,644 in unitemized expenditures.

Moore listed such expenditures as $3,206 to the Ohio Valley Advertising Corp., Wheeling, for billboard advertising and $1,865 for unitemized expenditures.

The clerk's office said no report was received from Moore's Democratic opponent, William M. Kidd.

Guthrie listed among his major contributors: Nelson A. Rockefeller, $1,000; and the National Republican Boosters Committee, $1,000.

Girl, 7, Reported Abducted Sought In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A force of city policemen went from house to house in the city's Kensington section today searching for a 7-year-old girl reportedly abducted by a man in an auto.

The girl, Guillermina Zayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guillermo Zayes, disappeared Sunday. Monday her sister, Madalia, 8, tearfully sobbed out that she had last seen her sister get into an auto with a man.

Earlier Madalia had told her parents and the police her sister just walked away.

But detective William Britt said Monday Madalia told them that while she and her sister were playing, a man drove up and asked where their father was.

"At home," Madalia said she told him.

He then motioned to the younger girl to get into the car and said, "show me where your father is." They drove away.

Madalia told policemen she didn't think about it because they were playing just around the corner from their house. She went home later, but her sister was not there.

The girl gave police a description of the man and of his auto.

The Zayeses live at 2654 North Third.

Candidate's Hoping No One Votes For Him

BERLIN, N.H. (AP) — Robert Dumont, unlike thousands of political candidates awaiting the results of today's voting, hopes nobody will vote for him.

Dumont is Republican candidate for supervisor of checklists, a minor city office responsible for keeping records. He recently accepted a teaching job with New Hampshire Vocational Institute. As a state employe he can't run for public office, but he couldn't get his name off the ballot.

So on election eve, Dumont issued the plea "don't elect me."

Orange Bowl Group To Watch 5 Schools

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Orange Bowl Committee will have scouts watching five schools this weekend, undefeated Alabama, Nebraska and Georgia Tech and once-beaten Florida and Georgia.

Orange Bowl President John Ring indicated that the Orange Bowl would offer its bids on Nov. 21, the first date authorized by the NCAA.

Artificial Heart Patient Claimed

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Artificial heart pump patient Charles Victorien Maboge, 38, died early today at Methodist Hospital 11 days after undergoing surgery.

A statement issued by the hospital said the warehouse worker from Rochefort, Belgium, died of liver and kidney failure. The statement said the malfunctioning of the kidneys and liver was the result of a prolonged serious heart condition he had suffered before undergoing the operation.

The Belgian has been in critical condition since Sunday.

Maboge received the pump Oct. 28, plus three plastic heart valves as replacements for his own diseased valves. He had been conscious and listed in satisfactory condition until a crisis developed early Saturday.

Junior Editors Quiz on ANIMALS

QUESTION: What are the smallest animals?

ANSWER: Inside the black circle at upper left is what is said to be the smallest animal, shown as if seen through a microscope—for this minute, one-celled creature is only 1/8000 of an inch long. It is an enemy of man, a parasite which causes malaria, and belongs to the animal group called Protozoa, many members of which are extremely valuable to mankind. To the right is the smallest vertebrate or animal with a backbone. It is one of about 500 kinds of fishes called gobies, most of which are small. Our tiny goby is only half an inch long. Some of the gobies can actually crawl out on land.

Prize for tiniest bird in the U.S.A. goes to the hummingbird, which is often mistaken for a sphinx moth as it hovers before some flower, ready to probe for nectar or insects. We illustratae the ruby-throated hummnigbird. If the ruby-throat's weight equals a penny, that of the pigmy shrew, prize winner for small size among North American mammals, is less than a dime. In spite of its size, this shrew is savage and active, eating several times its weight in insects in one day.

FOR YOU TO DO: To get an idea of the tiny size of the hummingbird and shrew, feel the weight of a penny in your hand, then of a dime.

Erhard Rejects Bundestag For Confidence Vote

BONN, Germany (AP) — West Germany's Bundestag urged Chancellor Ludwig Erhard today to ask for a formal vote of confidence which he would almost certainly lose. Erhard said in advance he would not comply.

The vote was 255-246 on a Socialist motion which Erhard does not have to heed. The Socialists were joined by the Free Democrats, until Oct. 27, Erhard's allies in a coalition government.

The chancellor's Christian Democratic party voted against the motion.

The Bundestag can only replace the chancellor if a majority can agree on a successor. So far it has been unable to do this.

Erhard lost his majority Oct. 27 when the Free Democrats, who have 49 members in the Bundestag, quit his coalition government in opposition to tax raises he planned to balance the budget and finance arms purchases the government had pledged to make from the United States. The United States demanded the purchases to offset the foreign exchange it spends on U.S. forces in Germany.

Cincinnati Postpones Test For Chief Again

CINCINNATI (AP)—A Civil Service examination to select a police chief for Cincinnati has been postponed a second time.

The tests were to be held this week but the city crime study commission, as a result of recent hearings, said it would like to submit possible revisions for selection for a new chief to replace retired Stanley R. Schrotel.

Special Council Session Set After President Breaks Tie

Because only four of the seven voting members were present, Council adjourned its session Monday night almost as soon as it convened -- but not without a brief argument, a 2-2 deadlock and a tie-breaking vote by President Ernest Lowe.

Councilmen Frank Duffy, Norman Bucher, James Lowe and Donna Richards Wilson were present, with Councilmen Floyd Murray, Robert W. Sample and Harold Maylone absent.

COUNCIL MOVED through the preliminaries — holding roll call, excusing the absent and approving the minutes, and then Bucher moved to adjourn the session until next Monday night. He was seconded by Lowe.

"Why postpone the meeting?" Duffy asked. "Let's do the business of Council tonight. I am going to vote 'no' on this motion."

The president asked for a roll call vote, which ended in the 2-2 split. Bucher and James Lowe supported the motion, with Duffy and Mrs. Wilson dissenting. Under the rules, the president is required to break a tie.

"I feel that all members of Council should be present to join in discussions and help reach decisions, so I will vote in favor of the motion," Ernest Lowe said. "This motion is approved and Council is adjourned."

The special meeting will be held at 8 next Monday night.

Although the regular meeting lasted less than five minutes, Council actually deliberated for more than an hour, since the public meeting was preceded by a caucus from 7 to 8.

THREE LETTERS to Council were held over for action at the special session.

Harold Peterson, water department superintendent, requested legislative authority to advertise for bids and award a contract for purchase of a two-ton truck chassis and cab for the department's use. He pointed out $3,000 was set aside in the current year's appropriation ordinance for the purchase, but no legislation has been enacted to permit the department to call for bids and buy a truck.

City Engineer George S. Bloomgren sent a letter suggesting that Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper be asked to determine whether or not the municipality is responsible for alleged damage to the wall of a garage owned by Mrs. Elizabeth Finlay of 709 Sophia St.

Bloomgren had been asked to investigate Mrs. Finlay's claim that the wall was damaged by a tree growing on nearby city property. She filed a claim for $452.

Bloomgren also sent a letter to Council with his comments on a proposal from School Supt. Paul Blair that a sanitary sewer be extended from Ambrose Ave. and Vine St. to serve the new school property along Maine Blvd.

Bloomgren pointed out that a request has been filed to add Maine Blvd. to the so - called "Federal Aid Secondary" system of highways, to establish a route from North Side to the downtown area. It would lead via Maine Blvd. to Bradshaw Ave., to Walnut St. to E. 5th St., he pointed out.

If the street is improved, it would be wise to install the sewer before the pavement is laid, he declared.

Erhard Rejects Bundestag For Confidence Vote

BONN, Germany (AP) — West Germany's Bundestag urged Chancellor Ludwig Erhard today to ask for a formal vote of confidence which he would almost certainly lose. Erhard said in advance he would not comply.

The vote was 255-246 on a Socialist motion which Erhard does not have to heed. The Socialists were joined by the Free Democrats, until Oct. 27, Erhard's allies in a coalition government.

The chancellor's Christian Democratic party voted against the motion.

The Bundestag can only replace the chancellor if a majority can agree on a successor. So far it has been unable to do this.

Erhard lost his majority Oct. 27 when the Free Democrats, who have 49 members in the Bundestag, quit his coalition government in opposition to tax raises he planned to balance the budget and finance arms purchases the government had pledged to make from the United States. The United States demanded the purchases to offset the foreign exchange it spends on U.S. forces in Germany.
